An Arab diplomat visiting the US for the first time was being wined and dined by the State Department. The Grand Emir was unused to the salt in American foods (french fries, cheeses, salami, anchovies etc.,) and was constantly sending his man-servant Abdul to fetch him a glass of water.
Time and again, Abdul would scamper off and return with a glass of water, but then came the time when he returned empty-handed. "Abdul, you son of an ugly camel, where is my water??" demanded the Grand Emir.

"A thousand pardons, O Illustrious One," stammered the wretched Abdul, "white man sit on well."

Three men were sitting stiffly side by side on a long commercial flight.
After they're airborne and the plane has leveled off, the man in the window seat abruptly says, distinctly and confidently, in a loud voice,
"Admiral, United States Navy, retired. Married, two sons, both surgeons."
After a few minutes the man in the aisle seat states through a tight lipped smile,
"Admiral, United States Coast Guard, retired. Married, two sons, both Judges."
After some thought, the fellow in the center seat decides to introduce himself.
With a twinkle in his eye he proclaims,

"Master Gunnery Sergeant, United States Marines, retired. Never married, two sons, both Admirals."

YOU brought poor Gav into your bullshit. YOU posted crap about her online.

The last thing YOU can be called is a man. YOU'RE a low life, no good son of a bitch. YOU posted shit about Gav,your mother,your father in these very groups. Now you bitch like the little queer you are when it's posted about. Go ahead, deny it.Better yet, go tell your kookie blow buttie "Henry Teh Homo" about it.

Remember asshole, google is our friend.....well,.....maybe not yours!

"WRONG! The plays of Aristophanes prove that the overwhelming majority of Athenians were straight and idiogenogamotics were ridiculed as either being effeminate or only doing kologamosis in return for political or financial favours. If this was not so then Aristophanes would not have mocked the politicians in the front seats as boy fuckers (kologamosis with young boys will illegal in ancient Athens and those engaging in it were banned from holding elected office) or made numerous bum gags, or brought naked girls on stage for an all male audience to represent peace or written plays featuring female prostitutes. and you will fail. You will also fail to find him listed if you go to the similar web sites maintained by Illinois and Michigan.

jews have a long history of sucking the blood out of whatever country hosts them.

Yep questioning so called religion and old power and ideas is a threat to the insecure and the jews are good at questioning things and promoting changes that make the old power hate them. In the uS control and fixes and old power to this day is the same way excpet more jews are actually not talking about the conspiracies this time

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

The Hartz Mountain Corporation Voluntarily Recalls One Specific Lot of Nationwide Chicken-Basted Rawhide Chips Because of Possible Health Risk
Contact:
John Mullane
(914) 712 9150

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- October 20, 2008 -- The Hartz Mountain Corporation, Secaucus, NJ is voluntarily recalling one specific lot of Hartz Chicken-Basted Rawhide Chips due to concerns that one or more bags within the lot are potentially contaminated with Salmonella. Hartz is fully cooperating with the US Food and Drug Administration in this voluntary recall.

Salmonella can cause serious infections in dogs, and, if there is cross-contamination caused by handling of the rawhide chips, in people as well, especially children, the aged, and people with compromised immune systems. Healthy people potentially infected with Salmonella should monitor themselves for some or all of the following symptoms: nausea, vomiting, diarrhea or bloody diarrhea, abdominal cramping and fever. On rare occasions, Salmonella can result in more serious ailments, including arterial infections, endocarditis, arthritis, muscle pain, eye irritation, and urinary tract symptoms. Consumers exhibiting these signs after having contact with this product should contact their healthcare providers.

Pets with Salmonella infections may be lethargic and have diarrhea or bloody diarrhea, fever, and vomiting. Some pets will have only decreased appetite, fever and abdominal pain. Animals can be carriers with no visible symptoms and can potentially infect other animals or humans. If your pet has consumed the recalled product and has these symptoms, please contact your veterinarian.

The product involved is 4,850 - 2 pound plastic bags of Hartz Chicken-Basted Rawhide Chips, lot code JC23282, UPC number 3270096463 which were distributed to a national retail customer. While the normal testing that Hartz conducts through an independent outside laboratory did not detect the presence of Salmonella in any Hartz rawhide products, sample testing conducted by another laboratory did indicate the presence of the bacteria in a sample bag of the Chicken-Basted Rawhide Chips. Hartz is aggressively investigating the difference in test results and the potential source of the problem.

Although Hartz has not received any reports of animals or humans becoming ill as a result of coming into contact with this product, Hartz is taking immediate steps to remove the product from all retail stores and distribution centers. Dog owners who purchased this product should check the lot code on their bag, and, if the code is not visible, or if the bag has lot code JC23282 imprinted thereon, they should immediately discontinue use of the product and discard it in a proper manner.

Consumers can contact Hartz at 1-800-275-1414 with any questions they may have and to obtain reimbursement for purchased product.

No, stops on ELPH's demand that the law be applied EQUALLY to ALL!
Defense of Home brought me to protect HOME, and the Gate to Heaven!
I fight "The GODS", who want to invade the place and destroy "The Gate to Heaven"!
Led to me understanding My Name, the Covenant, and GAY HISTORY!
My Ancestors were The Laddies who wore Skirts, the Elves, Fairies, Brownies, Pixies. . . . . .
Changelings, Shapeshifters, the House of Seth Gen 4: L2 Verses!
The "Strangers" of the Bible!
MT. 19:12, some are "Born of the Mothers Womb" GET USED TO IT!!!!
Besides, if Adam in Gen 2 was created in Gods image, then altered, and God then gave Eve the "Covenant" of Seth, then the Idea is, Evolution.
Mankind will no matter what evolve into a Hermaphrodite Race!
Such is "The Will of God"!

You can't hate evolution, "Shit Happens"!

And yet he made big, blowhard claims that he is a licensed Indiana teacher. Try to look him up at

http://mustang.doe.in.gov/TEACH/teach_inq.cfm

and you will fail. You will also fail to find him listed if you go to the similar web sites maintained by Illinois and Michigan.

Thanks everyone for your positive comments.
I post these because not everyone subscribe to these announcements. I consider these announcements to benefit everyone, to be of public Health issues. That means, that this will apply to "HAM" operators and therefore it is definitely not OT!
It appears that Marky he/she has self appointed him/her self as the Moderator to this NG, but he/she also posts many, many posts that are typically OT and has nothing to do with "HAM" radio! GO FIGURE!

4640. shownatovah day 137 lawsuit watch is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't sue anyoone for doing what the laws requires OTOH to sue you still have to give your real names and that you dare not do for fear for what will hapen in return that is ok because your fame as Kooks is slowly spreading accorss the net I guess you like being seem as kooky and impotent, personaly i would not care that but enjoy fellows, it is clear howver that I am the very center of your life

http://mustang.doe.in.gov/TEACH/teach_inq.cfm

and you will fail. You will also fail to find him listed if you go to the similar web sites maintained by Illinois and Michigan.

And yet he made big, blowhard claims that he is a licensed Indiana teacher. Try to look him up at

http://mustang.doe.in.gov/TEACH/teach_inq.cfm

and you will fail. You will also fail to find him listed if you go to the similar web sites maintained by Illinois and Michigan.

And yet he made big, blowhard claims that he is a licensed Indiana teacher. Try to look him up at

http://mustang.doe.in.gov/TEACH/teach_inq.cfm

and you will fail. You will also fail to find him listed if you go to the similar web sites maintained by Illinois and Michigan.

Glen laughs at Mark. Gets him impeached at the drop of a hat. Now there's real power. Meanwhile, Mark only has usenet left to play
"let's pretend" on.

what indeed it is just that certain folks can't allow anyone to be defferent wioihout traching the NG

if ham were by and adults it would not happen

but they are not

You speak of someone that is very experienced in this process!!!

The idiot is our resident spamer, KB9RQZ.
He spams for hours on end to both usenet and other boards. He has been banned from qrz.com along with other boards. He was even kicked out of his local amateur radio club for vile actions I won't post here. If you should desire further information on this lid I suggest a visit to http://ve7kfm.com would be in order. he has turned our home group rec.radio.amateur.policy into a sewer.

The teacher in Johnny's school asked the class what their parents did for a living. One little girl said her father was a doctor, another said her mother was an engineer. When it was Little Johnny's turn, he stood up and said "My mom's a whore."

Naturally, after that remark, he got sent off to the principal's office. Then, 15 minutes later, he returned.

So the teacher asked "Did you tell the principal what you said in class?"

Johnny said "Yes"

"Well, what did the principal say?"

"He said that every job is important in our economy, gave me an apple and asked for my phone number."

And yet he made big, blowhard claims that he is a licensed Indiana teacher. Try to look him up at

http://mustang.doe.in.gov/TEACH/teach_inq.cfm

a.. Stuffed Artichokes, Net Wt. 15 oz.
This product is being recalled because it contains milk, soy, and wheat that was distributed in packaging that does not reveal the presence of these ingredients. People who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to milk, soy, or wheat run the risk of a serious or life-threatening allergic reaction if they consume these products.

This product is distributed through retailers in the Greater New Orleans area including the Northshore from October 8, 2008 to October 17, 2008. The product is individually wrapped in clear plastic wrap bearing the label: "STUFFED ARTICHOKE, Net Wt. 15 oz., NONNA'S REAL ITALIANA CUCCINE".

There have been no reported illnesses to date.

The above omission was found during a routine FDA inspection. Distribution of these products has been suspended while we correct the labels to include all ingredients.

Consumers who have questions or purchased the product may contact Ruby Lovecchio at 214-253-7630 for information and return instructions.

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

Harry and David Issues Nationwide Allergy Alert on Undeclared Pecans in Harry & David Moose Munch Confection, Milk Chocolate Gingerbread
Contact:
Mr. Bill Ihle EVP, Corporate Relations

541 864-2145 (Media Calls Only)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- October 22, 2008 -- Harry and David, of Medford, Oregon, is voluntarily recalling approximately 400 1 lb. 4 oz. boxes labeled Harry & David Moose Munch Confection, Milk Chocolate Gingerbread because the package may contain a different Moose Munch product which contains pecans not declared on the ingredient statement. People who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to pecans run the risk of serious or life-threatening allergic reaction if they consume this product.

Affected product was distributed throughout the United States under the Harry & David brand only in Harry and David stores.

Harry and David is recalling 1 lb. 4 oz. boxes of Harry & David Moose Munch Confection, Milk Chocolate with a "Best if used by" date of 06/28/09. The "Best if used by" date is located on a sticker on the bottom of the box. The bottom of the box also has the stock identifying number RSD142014 printed on it. This lot of product was sold beginning 10/09/08. The popcorn-based confection is packaged in 1 lb. 4 oz. brown and white paperboard boxes. The boxes have a slight wedge shape and feature a large white moose image on the front. Inside the boxes are clear plastic bags of the confection.

There have been no illnesses or injuries reported to date. Anyone concerned about an illness/injury should contact a physician immediately.

This problem, which was discovered on October 21st, 2008, occurred because Dark Chocolate Butter Pecan Moose Munch&#65533; Confection was inadvertently packed in a Milk Chocolate Gingerbread outer box. It is estimated that fewer than 60 such boxes were produced.

Consumers with product may return it to any Harry and David retail store for a full refund. Consumers with questions about the recalled product may phone the Harry and David Customer Service division at 800-233-1101, 24 hours a day.

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

it holds even into the quantum but there observational confirmation is limited or non existent. That's the problem and the major stumbling block to field unification. For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. It's like a blind man that

http://mustang.doe.in.gov/TEACH/teach_inq.cfm

and you will fail. You will also fail to find him listed if you go to the similar web sites maintained by Illinois and Michigan.

Today's CCRAA recipe is a Fresh Watercress Salad with Artichoke Hearts. It is very light yet has lots of flavor. Watercress has a natural peppery flavor and a great source of phytochemicals and antioxidants. This makes a nice salad for lunch or dinner, and it is a favorite at CCRAA club meetings.

1 lb. Fresh Watercress, wash and dry well
2 Tablespoons Fresh Basil leaves, cut in strips
2 cups Artichoke Hearts, quartered
1/4 cup Extra virgin olive oil

2/3 cup fresh lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon kosher sea salt
Pinch Fresh black pepper

In a large bowl add the watercress, basil and artichoke hearts. In a separate smal bowl whisk the olive oil, lemon juice, sea salt and black pepper until will blended. Pour the dressing over the salad and gently toss. Enjoy!

Roger is a hard worker, and he spends most of his nights bowling or playing volleyball. One weekend, his wife decides that he needs to relax a little and take a break from sports, so she takes him to a strip club.
The doorman at the club spots them and says "Hey Roger! How are you tonight?"
His wife, surprised, asks her husband if he has been here before. "No, no. He's just one of the guys I bowl with."
They are seated, and the waitress approaches, sees Roger and says "Nice to see you, Roger. A gin and tonic as usual?"
His wife's eyes widen. "You must come here a lot!"
"No, no" says Roger "I just know her from volleyball."
Then a stripper walks up to the table. She throws her arms around Roger and says "Roger! A table dance as usual?"
His wife, fuming, collects her things and storms out of the bar.
Roger follows her and spots her getting into a cab, so he jumps into the passenger seat.
His wife looks at him, seething with fury and lets Roger have it with both barrels.
At this, the cabby leans over and says "Sure looks like you picked up a bitch tonight, Roger!"

4838. shoveanovaupyourass day 3254 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believing that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. Shalom!

4839. shoveanovaupyourass day 3254 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believing that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. 4850. shoveanovaupyourass day 3254 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believing that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. 4874. shoveanovaupyourass day 3256 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believing that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. And yet he made big, blowhard claims that he is a licensed Indiana teacher. Try to look him up at

and you will fail. You will also fail to find him listed if you go to the similar web sites maintained by Illinois and Michigan.

A man and his wife were going to a costume party at a rural mansion. Just in sight of the mansion, the car broke down. They decided to walk.

Since the shortest distance was across a pasture and they were going as a cow, they decided on the short cut. About halfway across the pasture, they ran into a bull who became very "interested." The husband, who was in the back, said, "What shall we do now?"

The wife, who was in front, said, "I'm going to put my head down and make believe I'm eating grass. You had better brace yourself."

And yet he made big, blowhard claims that he is a licensed Indiana teacher. Try to look him up at

http://mustang.doe.in.gov/TEACH/teach_inq.cfm

and you will fail. You will also fail to find him listed if you go to the similar web sites maintained by Illinois and Michigan.

4914. shoveanovaupyourass day 3256 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believing that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. Indeed. Then he could mow some grass.

4917. shoveanovaupyourass day 3254 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believing that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. Anna Shownatovah likes watercress and artichoke hearts. That's why Marky runs around calling out her last name.

4926. shoveanovaupyourass day 3254 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believing that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. Portland Shellfish Co. Inc.
207-799-9290

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- October 21, 2008 -- Portland Shellfish Co., Inc., South Portland, Maine is voluntarily recalling Frozen, Cooked -Claw Island brand Lobster Claw and Knuckle Meat, Lot 25508, packaged in 2 lb bags, because it has the potential to be contaminated with Listeria monocytogenes, an organism which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems. Although healthy individuals may suffer only short-term symptoms such as high fever, severe headache, stiffness, nausea, abdominal pain and diarrhea, Listeria infection can cause miscarriages and stillbirths among pregnant women.

The product was distributed to Pagano's Inc., 142 Water Street, Norwalk, CT and further distributed to restaurants.

The product is identified as K Maine Lobster Meat, packed by Portland Shellfish Co., South Portland, Maine. Each master carton contains 6/2 lb bags of claw and knuckle meat, Lot code 25508 and expiration date March 12, 2010.

The recall was initiated after it was discovered through random testing that the product tested positive for Listeria monocytogenes. Consequently, we are recalling this lot from the market. Other lots are not involved. The company is continuing testing and has to date not discovered any other Listeria issues.

No related foodborne illnesses have been reported to date.

Customers who purchased Claw Island Lobster claw and knuckle meat are urged to return it to the place of purchase for a full refund. Consumers with questions may contact the company at 207-699-5505.

No - Marky or whomever is claiming to be him/her this week, if just a screwball who likes to hijack sub lines thinking that he/she can do it to prove some idiotic point to his/hers feeble mind! I refer to his/hers, him/her, etc., because some times he/she says they are "BI", and then other times they drop the "BI", so therefore you really can't tell what IT may be!

Thank you for another fine post.

4947. shoveanovaupyourass day 3256 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believing that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. Shalom!

4968. Re: shoveanovaupyourass day 3254 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believing that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. Shalom!

5003. shoveanovaupyourass day 3254 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believe that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return, as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook's fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and likes to be seen as a total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. Radical Loon When Obama Was Only 47
by Ann Coulter (more by this author) Posted 10/22/2008 ET Updated 10/22/2008 ET

The media are acting as if they completely and fully vetted Obama during the Democratic primaries and that's why they are entitled to send teams of researchers into Alaska to analyze Sarah Palin's every expense report.

In fact, the mainstream media did no vetting. They seem to have all agreed, "OK, none of us will get into this business with Jeremiah Wright, 'Tony' Rezko, Saul Alinsky, Bill Ayers and everyone's impression of an angry Michelle Obama on 'The Jerry Springer Show.'"

During one of the Democratic primary debates, Hillary Clinton was hissed for mentioning Syrian national Rezko, and during another, ABC moderator George Stephanopoulos nearly lost his career for asking Obama one question about William Ayers.

In the past week, TV anchors have taken to claiming that Obama "refuted" John McCain's statement that Obama launched his political career at the home of former Weather Underground leader Ayers.

No, Obama "denied" it; he didn't "refute" it. If "denying" something is the same as "refuting" it, then maybe the establishment media can quit harping on Palin's supposed lack of qualifications to be president, since she too "refuted" that by denying it.

Back before the media realized it needed to lie about Obama launching his political career at Ayers' house, the Los Angeles Times provided an eyewitness account from a liberal who attended the event.

"When I first met Barack Obama, he was giving a standard, innocuous little talk in the living room of those two legends-in-their-own-minds, Bill Ayers and Bernardine Dohrn. They were launching him -- introducing him to the Hyde Park community as the best thing since sliced bread."

The Times has now stripped this item from its Web page, but the great blogger Patterico has preserved it for posterity on his Web page.

Obama's glib remark that "Bill Ayers is a professor of education in Chicago; 40 years ago when I was 8 years old he engaged in despicable acts with a domestic group. I have roundly denounced those attacks" -- doesn't answer anything.

First of all, the fact that Ayers is a professor of education proves only one thing: He is dumber than any person without an education degree.

Ayers is such an imbecile, we ought to be amazed that he's teaching at a university -- even when you consider that it's an ed school -- except all former violent radicals end up teaching. Roughly 80 percent of former Weathermen are full college professors -- 99 percent if you don't include the ones killed in shoot-outs with the police or in prison -- i.e., not yet pardoned by a Democratic president.

Any other profession would have banned a person like Ayers. Universities not only accept former domestic terrorists, but also move them to the front of the line. In addition to Ayers, among those once on the FBI's most-wanted list who ended up in cushy college teaching positions are Bernardine Dohrn (Northwestern University), Mark Rudd (a junior college in New Mexico) and Angela Davis (History of Consciousness Department, University of California at Santa Cruz).

While others were hard at work on Ph.D.s, Susan Rosenberg was conspiring to kill cops and blow up buildings, and was assembling massive caches of explosives. This put her on the fast track for a teaching position at Hamilton College!

Despite having absolutely no qualifications to teach, having earned only a master's degree in "writing" through a correspondence course, Rosenberg was offered a position at Hamilton within a few years of President Clinton pardoning her in 2001, releasing her from a 58-year prison sentence for participating in the murder of cops and possessing more than 700 pounds of explosives.

But Obama thinks it's a selling point to say that Ayers is a college professor.

Hundreds of college professors have signed a letter vouching for Ayers, which would be like Lester Maddox producing a letter from George Wallace assuring us that Maddox is a respected member of the community. No, really, I've got the letter right here!

The media keep citing the fact that the money Obama and Ayers distributed to idiotic left-wing causes came -- as The New York Times put it -- "from Walter H. Annenberg, the billionaire publisher and philanthropist and President Richard M. Nixon's ambassador to the United Kingdom."

Great Republican though he was, Walter Annenberg died in 2002. The money came from the Annenberg Foundation, which, like all foundations, distributes money to projects that its founder would despise. John Kerry ran for president on the late John Heinz's money. That didn't mean Republican Heinz was endorsing Kerry.

As John O'Sullivan says, any foundation that is not explicitly right-wing will become a radical left-wing organization within a few years. It could be the Association of University Women, the American Association of Retired People, the American Rose Growers, the Foundation for the Study of Railroad Engineers or the Choral Society of Newport Beach.

Left-wing radicals swarm to free foundation money, where they can give gigantic grants to one another and they will never have to do a day's work. That's exactly what Obama and Ayers did with Annenberg's money.

None of the Annenberg money went to schoolchildren. It went to Ayers' left-wing crank friends to write moronic papers that we hope no one ever reads.

Instead of teaching students reading and writing, Ayers thinks they should be taught to rebel against America's "imperialist" social structure. In 2006, Ayers was in Venezuela praising communist dictator Hugo Chavez, saying, "We share the belief that education is the motor-force of revolution."

He has backed a line of schoolbooks such as one titled "Teaching Science for Social Justice."

Forget about Ayers' domestic terrorism when Obama "was 8 years old." Does he agree with Ayers' idiot ideas right now?

And yet he made big, blowhard claims that he is a licensed Indiana teacher. Try to look him up at

http://mustang.doe.in.gov/TEACH/teach_inq.cfm

and you will fail. You will also fail to find him listed if you go to the similar web sites maintained by Illinois and Michigan.

There are bird couriers, but I wouldn't use one. I insist they collect or I deliver.

An American decided to write a book about famous churches around the world. So he bought a plane ticket and took a trip to Orlando, thinking that he would start by working his way across the USA from South to North.

On his first day he was inside a church taking photographs when he noticed a golden telephone mounted on the wall with a sign that read
"$10,000 per call". The American, being intrigued, asked a priest who was strolling by what the telephone was used for. The priest replied that it was a direct line to heaven and that for $10,000 you could talk to god. The American thanked the priest and went along his way. Next stop was in Atlanta. There, at a very large cathedral, he saw the same golden telephone with the same sign under it. He wondered if this was the same kind of telephone he saw in Orlando and he asked a nearby nun what its purpose was.

She told him that it was a direct line to heaven and that for $10,000 he could talk to god. "O.K., thank you," said the American. He then travelled to Indianapolis, Washington DC, Philadelphia,Boston and New York. In every church he saw the same golden telephone with the same "$10,000 per call" sign under it. The American, upon leaving Vermont decided to travel to SCOTLAND to see if SCOTS had the same phone. He arrived in SCOTLAND, and again, in the first church he entered, there was the same golden telephone, but this time the sign under it read "40 pence per call." The American was surprised so he asked the priest about the sign. "Father, I've travelled all over America and I've seen this same golden telephone in many churches. I'm told that it is a direct line to Heaven, but in the US the price was $10,000 per call. Why is it so cheap here?" The priest smiled and answered, "You're in SCOTLAND now, son - it's a local call".

A priest went into the country to pay a visit to a 92 year old church member who he'd not seen for years.
She welcomed him into the parlour.
While she made tea, he looked around and saw a beautiful oak pump organ with a cut glass bowl sitting on top of it.
The bowl was half filled with water and a condom was floating on top of it.
Astonished and shocked, he quickly turned away.
But after tea curiosity got the best of him and he asked her about it.
"Oh, yes," she said enthusiastically.
"While in town last year I found a package on the sidewalk.
The directions on the back said 'keep wet and put on your organ to prevent disease.'

And you know, I think it works. I haven't had a cold all winter!"

A priest went into the country to pay a visit to a 92 year old church member who he'd not seen for years.
She welcomed him into the parlour.
While she made tea, he looked around and saw a beautiful oak pump organ with a cut glass bowl sitting on top of it.
The bowl was half filled with water and a condom was floating on top of it.

Astonished and shocked, he quickly turned away.
But after tea curiosity got the best of him and he asked her about it.
"Oh, yes," she said enthusiastically.
"While in town last year I found a package on the sidewalk.

5116. shoveanovaupyourass day 3254 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actually believe that the law requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return, as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kook's fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs, and likes to be seen as a total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. The newest U.P. hot spot, the Greenlight Lounge, is IN and all kewl pple know it. For a good time watching local thespians and magickal pple, come to

The Greenlight Lounge
Phone: 906-523-4417
22095 7th St
Chassell, MI 49916

Be sure to bring yer cents of humor with you.

Instead of karaoke, the Greenlight has a thespian showcase ever Saturday nite at 10 pm sharp. Each year they have a different theme for the showcase, and this year the theme is Native American berdaches and their customs and costumes. Right now, the thespian who has won the last twenty showcases is Mr. Morkie, and so he is Greenlight's reigning champion and the one to beat.

Besides that, the Greenlight has an enema room with its own beer keg and floor drain so that you can enjoy beer yer own way. This is a feature to be found in no other U.P. bar.

We have fun, fun, fun, fun, fun ever Saturday night, so put on yer leotards and get to stepping. Be thier or be square.

California lawmakers are now proposing an amendment that would allow 14 year olds a quarter vote and 16 year olds a half a vote in all state elections.
How stupid is this? Don't they have enough trouble counting WHOLE votes? How are they going to figure out fractions?!

5181. Re: shownatovah day 141 lawsuit watch is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't sue anyoone for doing what the laws requires OTOH to sue you still have to give your real names and that you dare not do for fear for what will hapen in return that is ok because your fame as Kooks is slowly spreading accorss the net I guess you like being seem as kooky and impotent, personaly i would not care that but enjoy fellows, it is clear howver that I am the very center of your life and to sue youfor false accusation you must be the target of them meaning allegedly only k3vr and w4nti are able to sue

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

Thoratec Corporation Issues Worldwide Medical Device Correction of HeartMate II® Left Ventricular Assist System
Contact:
Thoratec Corporation
1-800-528-2577

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- PLEASANTON, CA -- October 24, 2008-Thoratec Corporation is initiating a worldwide medical device correction of all serial numbers of the HeartMate II Left Ventricular Assist Systems (HM II LVAS) having Catalogue No. 1355 or 102139, which have been distributed since the beginning of clinical studies in November 2003. Over time, wear and fatigue of the percutaneous lead connecting the HeartMate II LVAS blood pump with the System Controller may result in damage that could interrupt pump function, require reoperation to replace the pump and potentially result in serious injury or death. The estimated probability of the need for pump replacement due to percutaneous lead damage is 1.3% at 12 months, 6.5% at 24 months and 11.4% at 36 months.

Patients who are currently being supported by a HeartMate II LVAS should contact their doctors, who can assess the wear and fatigue of the percutaneous lead as well as provide proper instruction on management and care of the lead.

Thoratec is voluntarily issuing an Urgent Medical Device Correction notice after confirming 27 reports where wear and fatigue to the percutaneous lead necessitated pump replacement. These reports occurred over five years of clinical experience with 1,972 implants. All patients who have undergone a replacement of the HeartMate II pump survived the operation and were alive at least 30 days postoperatively. In five cases, pump replacement was not feasible and the patients expired.

The affected systems were distributed to 153 hospitals and distributors throughout the United States, Europe, Canada and other countries. The HM II LVAS can be identified by the catalogue number located on the label of the package.

Hospitals are being sent an Urgent Medical Device Correction letter identifying the probability and symptoms of the problem, and recommending that the pump be replaced as soon as possible if damage to the percutaneous lead is confirmed. Hospitals are also requested to review the instructions for care of the percutaneous lead with their ongoing HeartMate II LVAS patients. Hospitals with ongoing HeartMate II LVAS patients should contact Thoratec for further instructions if they do not receive the Medical Device Correction letter. The labeling for the HeartMate II LVAS will be revised with the updated risk information related to percutaneous lead damage. Copies of this press release may be found on Thoratec's website, www.thoratec.com, under Investor Relations/Press Releases.

Clinicians and patients with questions may contact the company at 1-800-528-2577, or if calling from outside the USA, 1-925-847-8600 (7 days a week, 8-5 Pacific Time).

FDA has been informed of this action.

change it to dog instead of cow and moparhoLICK's wife is smiling
bigtime

You are welcome to change it if you wish! What ever turns you on!

On the morning of Rosh Hashana as the congregation was filing into the sanctuary, Rabbi Feldman noticed little Max standing in the foyer of the synagogue staring up at a large plaque. It was covered with names with small American flags mounted on either side of it. The six-year old had been staring at the plaque for some time, so the rabbi walked up,stood beside the little boy, and said quietly, 'Boker tov, Max. '

'Boker tov, Rabbi Feldman,' he replied, still focused on the plaque.
'Rabbi Feldman, what is this?'he said, pointing to the plaque.

The good Rabbi tenderly put his arm around Max's shoulder and said,
'Well son, it's a memorial to all the young men and women who died in the service.'

Soberly, they just stood together, staring at the large plaque.

Finally, little Max, in a voice barely audible and trembling with fear asked,
'Which service, Rosh Hashana or Yom Kippur?'

Amanpreet was overheard at the hospital angrily say, "My wife just delivered twins!!!"
A passerby said, "So? You should be happy about that. Why are you so angry?"
"I want to know who the son of a bitch is that's the father of the second kid!"

When you think of it, there are only two things you need to make people. You got to have sex. You got to have food. That's it. You don't need clothing, shelter, or TV. Okay, maybe TV, but otherwise, it's sex and food. But for some reason, sex is dirty.

Maybe god was a Republican. Somebody said, "All right, you want to propagate, go ahead, but only late at night, with all the doors closed, man on top, once a week, that's it." But not only can you eat the charred decaying flesh of other major mammals, you can do it in broad daylight and invite all your friends to watch: "Hey, Chuck, why don't you come over on Sunday? We're going to kill a pig, cut him up, burn him, and eat him. Bring the kids, have a hell of a time."

What if they had been switched around? What if, through a simple twist of fate, sex was clean but food was dirty? Our entire culture would change. Food would become a four-letter word.

Hookers would become cooks. You'd be accosted on street corners by plump ladies in Day-Glo aprons. "Hey, big boy, looking for a hot meal? Wanna crack some crab?"

Fundamental Christians would make meat and potatoes a religious tenet.

Many sexual positions would be found to be carcinogenic.

Parents would tell their children not to play with their food or they'll go blind.

Kids would remember the first time their mother caught them marinating.

Here is something for those that DON'T know, now you do.

Knowledge is power! Stay informed!

Subject: Comparison of Obama vs. McCain as reported on CNN.com/news

This might be the single best comparison I've seen on McCain and Obama. It's worth looking at this information and passing on so others can see the differences. Read this completely, because the tax differences between the two are significant. A must read for all Americans.

2008 PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE COMPARISON TALKING POINTS

BARACK OBAMA

Favors new drilling offshore US
Yes
No

Will appoint judges who interpret the law not make it
Yes
No

Served in the US Armed Forces
Yes
No

Amount of time served in the US Senate
22 YEARS
173 DAYS

Will institute a socialized national health care plan
No
Yes

Supports abortion throughout the pregnancy
No
Yes

Would pull troops out of Iraq immediately
No
Yes

Supports gun ownership rights
Yes
No

Supports homosexual marriage
No
Yes

Proposed programs will mean a huge tax increase
No
Yes

Voted against making English the official language
No
Yes

Voted to give Social Security benefits to illegals
No
Yes

CAPITAL GAINS TAX

MCCAIN
0% on home sales up to $500,000 per home (couples). McCain does not propose any change in existing home sales income tax.

OBAMA
28% on profit from ALL home sales. (How does this affect you? If you sell your home and make a profit, you will pay 28% of your gain on taxes. If you are heading toward retirement and would like to down-size your home or move into a retirement community, 28% of the money you make from your home will go to taxes. This proposal will adversely affect the elderly who are counting on the income from their homes as part of their retirement income.)

MCCAIN
15% (no change)

OBAMA
39.6% - (How will this affect you? If you have any money invested in stock market, IRA, mutual funds, college funds, life insurance, retirement accounts, or anything that pays or reinvests dividends, you will now be paying nearly 40% of the money earned on taxes if Obama becomes president. The experts predict that 'Higher tax rates on dividends and capital gains would crash the stock market, yet do absolutely nothing to cut the deficit.')

INCOME TAX

MCCAIN (no changes)
Single making 30K - tax $4,500
Single making 50K - tax $12,500
Single making 75K - tax $18,750

Married making 60K- tax $9,000
Married making 75K - tax $18,750
Married making 125K - tax $31,250

OBAMA (reversion to pre-Bush tax cuts)
Single making 30K - tax $8,400
Single making 50K - tax $14,000
Single making 75K - tax $23,250
Married making 60K - tax $16,800
Married making 75K - tax $21,000
Married making 125K - tax $38,750
Under Obama, your taxes could almost double!

INHERITANCE TAX

MCCAIN
- 0% (No change, Bush repealed this tax)

OBAMA
Restore the inheritance tax Many families have lost businesses, farms, ranches, and homes that have been in their families for generations because they could not afford the inheritance tax. Those willing their assets to loved ones will only lose them to these taxes.

NEW TAXES PROPOSED BY OBAMA

New government taxes proposed on homes that are more than 2400 square feet. New gasoline taxes (as if gas weren't high enough already) New taxes on natural resources consumption (heating gas, water, electricity) New taxes on retirement accounts, and last but not least....New taxes to pay for socialized medicine so we can receive the same level of medical care as other third-world countries!!! New taxes, taxes, taxes.......

You can verify the above at the following web sites:

PLEASE, PLEASE. PASS THIS ON. IT IS FAR TO IMPORTANT AN ISSUE TO LET PASS.

At a news conference announcing the invention, the scientist was taken outside by a group of cowboys, who then proceeded to kick the shit out of him.

Thank GOD he's gone!!!

THE LIFE OF RILEY
OR WHY MIKEE 'KALAMAZOO CUCKOO' ND8V WAS "IN LIKE FLYNN" AND CONTINUES TO LEAD A CHARMED EXISTENCE WITH RILEY 'ROT' HOLLINGSWORTH(LESS) K4ZDH

FOREWORD
An early non-annotated version of this investigative/opinion article was first published to unprecedented 'reviews' on www.eHam.net in September 2003 before being SPAM/e-QRM'ed off after ~two months by ND8V and toadies.

This SPAM/e-QRM, for a partial example only, initially entailed a form of malicious spamming by ND8V whereby he repeatedly copied/pasted the article/comments [Mikee can't write], thereby 'ballooning' the article and making it confusing for readers/visitors!

When ND8V was subsequently temporarily barred from further postings, he/his slightly more literate co-conspirators/toadies—chief arguably among them Brian 'The Fraudulent Crow' K3VR —resorted to anonymous character assassination/ad hominem attacks on the author [this is one of K3VR's specialties]. These attacks, under such instructive nom de plumes as GAY1MAN, OFFICIAL OBSERVER, etc., fraudulently mischaracterized—180 degrees removed from Standard English meaning—some extraneous materials gleaned off the Internet. ND8V and toadies can't read—while Brian suffers from a pathological 180 degree cerebral phase shift—and can't even tell "fucker" from "fuckee" [to use a crude 'Americanism'] in the style of cause in simple administrative proceedings [a.k.a. 'party of the first part', etc., in some jurisdictions].

After these posts were in turn exposed as false [and after being removed by the SysOps], ND8V and K3VR and toadies made similar posts under a fictitious Canadian call sign VE9PMI—but ultimately 'shot themselves in the foot' and showed their true fraudulent American identity, when they accused the author [as a fellow Canadian] of treason against the US [neither Mikee nor Brian can reason]!

Finally, ND8V and WD4AWO [one of ND8V's close disordered toadies] used the comments section in the manner of a crude/rude/obscene bulletin board/personal message function. Eventually, the SysOps got intimidated by the 'heat' from Riley & Co. and tired of policing these shenanigans as well as the complaints by the author and 'pulled' the article altogether…. Shame on eHam!

BACKGROUND
Once upon a time in America there came to be a giant of an organization called the American Radio Relay League (ARRL).
Much later, there appeared a short, shy and fundamentally lonely radio amateur with the ‘self-effacing’ call sign K1MAN [HI].
Sometime, somewhere, somehow yet later K1MAN came to the rather obvious conclusion that large organizations/associations, such as the ARRL or the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), in time lose touch with the membership/constituents they are supposed to serve.
This was not news, in that it has always been so.
Unlike others, who only ‘bitched’ about it, however, in ~the mid-1980s K1MAN apparently decided to start a Bulletin service on 14.275 MHz a la the ARRL’s W1AW in part to poke sticks into the respective eyes of both one-eyed Cyclops.
Surprise, surprise, the ARRL/FCC did not put K1MAN on their Christmas card lists.... Rather, they attempted to shut him down. Decades and much effort later, they appear to have failed, at least to the extent that K1MAN remains on the air.
Concurrently and arguably partly as a result of K1MAN’s so-called “bad example”, a group of rogue Citizens Band (CB) operators with an amateur licence [and many others without], decided to congregate on 14.313 MHz which frequency in time became a veritable ‘zoo’ . This was during the time when the amateur spectrum was supposedly ‘self-governing/policing’....
Then, some five years ago the ARRL reportedly proposed and the FCC agreed to appoint one Riley Hollingsworth K4ZDH as a ‘radio cop’, to clean up the ‘amateur beat’ generally . In reality, there were arguably only two items on Riley’s immediate agenda: K1MAN on 14.275 MHz and the mess on 14.313 MHz but for the obvious and not so obvious reasons, very much in that order.
Unfortunately K1MAN had in the meantime contracted to teach full-time and as a consequence had to take a sabbatical from producing the time-consuming Bulletins. Then, at a series of ‘hamventions’, Riley the radio cop loudly took credit for driving K1MAN off the air .... This played well at the FCC and among the ‘great unwashed’ and uninformed in the amateur community and earned Riley the moniker ‘The Rotweiler’.
Predictably, this had the same effect on K1MAN as a scarlet handkerchief has on a bull. K1MAN consequently let it widely be known that he would be back with a vengeance and as they say in show business, the stage was set....
In the meantime, Riley continued to ineffectively try to come to grips with the zoo on 14.313 MHz. ND8V a.k.a. ‘Kalamazoo Cuckoo’ to friends and detractors alike, was one of the chief rabble-rousers, helping to stoke the flames of the infamous “Radio Wars”. According even to his friends , he had attacked Hispanic-speaking stations “for years” calling them cockroaches and worse, interfered with formal maritime mobile and informal ‘trucker’ nets and seriously and repeatedly threatened—on and off the air—any number of amateurs who stood up to his bullying . Throughout this, despite being repeatedly informed in writing and otherwise, Riley did virtually nothing. Then, when even the US Coast Guard reportedly had enough of ND8V’s behaviour and caused a search to be made of his station, Riley ‘The Rotweiler’ was finally forced to act: he severely beat ND8V up—with a ‘wet noodle’—by supposedly suspending his High Frequency (HF) privileges for a curiously ‘pregnant’ nine months! This again played well at the FCC and even in the amateur community, to whom 14.313 MHz in general and to many ND8V in particular, had become such an acute international embarrassment.

Unfortunately, Riley had for some strange reason also made a ‘Faustian bargain’ with ND8V in part to the effect that if he behaved himself for the duration of the suspension, he would [surprise, surprise] be rewarded! All of his past sins were to be forgiven and forgotten—and what is most perverse—would not, as a result of this bargain, be used against him in subsequent disciplinary proceedings .... Obviously, someone had considered the possibility—many prophetically said inevitability—of subsequent disciplinary problems. Who? Why?
Interestingly, as part of this Faustian bargain, Riley apparently forbade ND8V to operate on 14.313 MHz—something he may not have had authority in law to do . But what is truly odd, when ND8V returned to HF—surprise, surprise ~a month before K1MAN’s published intension to resume his Bulletins—he relocated to 14.275 MHz! With virtually the entire 20m Band for ND8V to choose from , this was not entirely serendipitous....

ND8V, 9/11 & K1MAN
ND8V returned to HF in September 2001 after ‘serving’ only eight of the nine month suspension and within days was [surprise, surprise] back in trouble again . Riley was again forced to use the wet noodle, i.e. to issue another Warning Letter that, for reasons still unclear, but likely related to the Faustian bargain, appears to have again ‘gone away’ without significant or indeed any consequences .
In any event, immediately upon K1MAN’s return, he was [surprise, surprise] subjected to protracted, organized, vicious and malicious interference (QRM) by ND8V and his toadies from the zoo on 14.313 MHz now increasingly congregating on 14.275 MHz. [Interestingly, most of these were/are from the 4th Call District .] According to some, Riley/ the FCC reportedly sat back and listened, but the fact is that they pointedly took no action. Curiously, however, between this relentless QRM’ing and otherwise bad mouthing of K1MAN and inconvenient/ neighbouring others, ND8V could be heard loudly praising Riley—in nauseating fashion—the just completed suspension and by now extensive ‘rap sheet’ at the FCC and elsewhere notwithstanding .... Things were getting curiouser and curiouser....

ENTER “THE POLISH SPEAKERS”
Within yet another month, ND8V organized another attack, this time on a Polish-speaking amateur from New York City (the New Yorker), on the neighbouring frequency of 14.273 MHz for the twin ‘sins’ of in effect usually speaking in a foreign language and being too close to “his” newly chosen frequency.
Now, 14.273 MHz has for only some fifty years unofficially [and obviously non-exclusively] been known/used as the worldwide ‘Polish

Calling Frequency' . For the obvious reasons, most thinking amateurs consider such informal arrangements a very effective and efficient use of the radio spectrum . But, this was shortly after "9/11" and ND8V's apologists say that he should be forgiven for this misguided sense of 'American patriotism'….

Surprise, surprise, this attack on the sometime Polish-speakers generally and on the New Yorker in particular, had a similar modus operandi (MO) to that used a year earlier on the Hispanics! ND8V again in quick succession organized and/or encouraged his toadies from 14.275 MHz and others to write two transparently fictitious complaints to Riley against the New Yorker. Perversely, these involved allegations of 'perceived' overly-wide signals and interference no less , backed up by the 'thinnest' of malicious 'drivel' off the Internet. One complaint concerned chiefly what were clearly fraudulent rebroadcasts of the New Yorker's CQs [they taped and retransmitted his signals on top of their own and then complained to Riley about it!]. To even casual observers, this was/is the well-known MO of delinquent CB'ers and together with voice imitations, was/is a recognized specialty of the zoo in general and of ND8V in particular. As such, the complaints were an obviously 'put up job'.

Nevertheless, without checking the bona fides of the complaints or their chief instigator/organizer, or apparently doing any independent investigation whatsoever , Riley obligingly quickly issued two Warning Letters in succession to the New Yorker. These were then published on the ARRL website. This was/is Riley's standard operating procedure. Several knowledgeable and legally trained observers have aptly called this approach to enforcement "Trial By Press Release". The ARRL's by-and-large noble institutional memory should be offended and ashamed to be party to this .

These Warning Letters emboldened ND8V who was then openly heard bragging to his toadies that he would drive the sometime Polish-speakers off the neighbouring frequency in general and the New Yorker off the air in particular.

Then, two of the sometime Polish-speakers on and occasional users of 14.273 MHz [one American and one Canadian] stepped into the breach and attempted to defend their fellow amateur….

Initially, first the American and then the Canadian helped the New Yorker draft and send three lengthy and increasingly detailed registered letters of reply to Riley—not one of which to-date has even been acknowledged!

The American then sent a registered letter covering an audiotape evidencing malicious QRM and a death threat to the New Yorker uttered by none other than—surprise, surprise—'Dumbo Bobbie' WD4AWO—one of the original complainants and ND8V's regular toady from the backwoods of Tennessee. For some curious reason, Riley has not to-date deigned to acknowledge this serious incident either….

Over the next several months the Canadian followed up with some 20 very detailed e-mails, each one evidencing at least one instance of serious malicious QRM by ND8V and toadies. After insistent prompts Riley periodically laconically if inarticulately acknowledged some of these e-mails—not to be confused with answering them—but of course he did nothing substantive about the complaints as usual….

Then, after about six months of this benign neglect—and worse—and the continuing vicious attacks by ND8V, Riley finally attempted to placate the increasingly irate Canadian by advising, in writing, that he would hold a “review” of ND8V’s licence status at his upcoming renewal time. Inexplicably, however, a couple of months later, Riley/the FCC renewed ND8V’s licence without any review whatsoever! When confronted about this by the Canadian, Riley professed utter surprise and blamed the supposed error on some administrative ‘foul-up’. Others thought/think otherwise ….
Riley’s reply to this ‘dressing down’ was apoplectic, but informative for a change. He wrote that the Canadian should not bother him with "blow-by-blow" details—each one carefully crafted as a possible exhibit to any number of affidavits! Riley also stated that he had “just noticed” that the writer was a Canadian amateur!! This, recall, after more than 20 e-mails, all except one of which [a forward from the American] were very clearly identified with a Canadian call sign!!! The logical conclusion to be drawn from this is that Riley is either grossly inattentive to detail and/or that he doesn’t recognize a Canadian call sign when he sees one some 20 times in succession and/or that he is disingenuous [for those not familiar with the last word, look it up under “L” in the dictionary]. Irrespective, Riley thereby very arguably proved himself to be unfit for the important position that he holds at the FCC….
In his reply, Riley also unilaterally changed ‘the rules of engagement’ in mid-stream and suggested that the Canadian send him audiotapes instead of the detailed “blow-by-blow” e-mails .
It is interesting to note in passing that the form of complaint to the FCC is nowhere specified. In fact, an FCC Commissioner had shortly before this delivered a public ‘rocket’ to the Enforcement Bureau [of which Riley is Special Counsel, you might recall] on this very point. Also, there are serious and possibly insurmountable evidentiary problems with tapes made by ‘various and sundry’.
Nevertheless, the Canadian subsequently sent Riley a detailed letter covering a tape recording of a typical example, among others, of ND8V’s usual sociopathic QRM. This incident was even independently corroborated by a station from California, part of a Hawaiian net—which was 2 kHz down and was contemporaneously also maliciously QRM’ed by ND8V in the same ‘session’—and luckily caught on the very same tape! Despite this ‘double whammy’, from two independent sources that did not previously know each other, Riley never replied to the Californian [a retired Sergeant of police, incidentally] and only grudgingly acknowledged the ‘pesky’ Canadian. But, to-date, he has taken no substantive action on the incidents as usual….
All the while ND8V perversely continued to ‘suck up’ to and praise Riley on-air as if he were his ‘long lost bud’ and bragged about unprecedented access to and sometimes daily telephone contact with him [while practicing attorneys regularly could not get through].... To subjective and objective observers alike, things were not only getting curiouser and curiouser, but increasingly bizarre....

Then on 25 November 2002 Riley wrote ND8V an unprecedented strong Warning Letter noting that the FCC continues to receive complaints about him concerning the "…appropriation of certain frequencies …" and "…interference to certain operators". Riley inter alia cautioned that: "Any future incidents…even a single incident, will result in a monetary forfeiture and revocation proceeding against your license" and requested that ND8V refrain from operation on the 20m Band .
This unprecedented '…last warning, to last warning, to last warning, etc....' was again based on multiple, independent and well-founded complaints from several amateurs operating tens of kHz apart. At least two of these complaints were from mature, highly credible and wholly independent sources who did not then even know of the other's existence. But Riley obviously knew—and gave both the "mushroom treatment"! Interestingly, both of these sources were also legally trained…. Moreover, one of the complaints was in addition reduced to/ backed up by a very persuasive/extensive Statutory Declaration ….
Surprise, surprise, distressingly similar historical fact patterns and well-founded/drafted independent complaints notwithstanding, ND8V was able to dispose of them via only one "private" telephone call to his 'bud' Riley! Therein, in true sociopath style [aided by his "calm voice characteristics" no doubt—ND8V later bragged about this on-air], he simply described the multiple independent complaints to Riley as "all lies". Now, while Mikee unashamedly is an accomplished practitioner of 'The Big Lie' approach , what is nevertheless so inexplicable and bizarre in the circumstances is that Riley obviously 'bought' this preposterously 'thin' excuse!
STOP PRESS!
SPECIAL COUNSEL RILEY 'ROT' HOLLINGSWORTH K4ZDH AGAIN SNOOKERED BY 'CALM VOICE CHARACTERISTICS' OF MIKEE 'KALAMAZOO CUCKOO' ND8V….
After receiving such 'unimpeachable evidence to the contrary' from ND8V —Riley then shamelessly rescinded the Warning Letter—before it was even published!!! This raises the logical question: was Riley incompetent when he initially issued the unprecedented warning to ND8V— or when he rescinded it based on a simple telephone call from ND8V—or both?
This again of course only emboldened ND8V who then sold his perfectly serviceable FT-1000D and bought an IC-756 PRO—so as to more effectively 'keep watch' on and 'splatter' the sometime Polish-speakers especially, in what he instructively called "War Mode".
Subsequently, according to ND8V and his toadies, 14.275 MHz and vicinity was "always occupied", even when no one was using it ! ND8V published a "schedule" to that effect on QRZ.com and anyone—but especially the sometime Polish-speakers—attempting to use any frequency between ~14.270 MHz and ~14.280 MHz would then immediately be 'stomped on' and/or [surprise, surprise] loudly and perversely be accused of interfering with him!
If a few of the sometime Polish-speakers [soon, there were only two !]

could not thus be chased off and stood their ground, ND8V would then threaten them with being reported to his “friend and lawyer”, Riley. For effect, he would even occasionally pass out Riley’s direct/private telephone numbers! By this time he also repeatedly started threatening the Canadian generally and with a report to Industry Canada (IC), the Canadian equivalent of the FCC [and equally ineffective] in particular . All the while ND8V’s regular toadies [chief among them ‘Rambo Dan’ W4NTI, ‘Dumbo Bobbie’ WD4AWO, ‘Rude Rube’ K4RUB and ‘Miami Boob’ W4ASX to partially name only a few of the more unbalanced and guilty], were ready and more than willing in the background to uncritically back him up in whatever he said or did…. Soon, no one —‘rednecks’ from the 4th Call District and/or ND8V’s usual toadies and sycophants excepted—was safe in the middle of the 20 m Phone Band! All the while Riley/the FCC and even IC, despite being repeatedly advised, did nothing….

The American subsequently sent Riley more than a handful of registered letters covering some dozen tapes/instances of serious malicious QRM by ND8V. But of course Riley did not acknowledge this considerable effort and expense either….

Then in February 2003 ND8V together with his toadies organized a series of vicious on-air attacks on the two sometime Polish-speaking holdouts. That these attacks were also premeditated, organized and racially/ethnically driven is beyond question. Several amateurs and even a short-wave listener independently reported ND8V and his toadies ‘laying in wait’ and preparing for them as such. The attacks were on an unprecedented scale and of ferocious intensity. Many of them literally lasted for hours! Some again involved repeated threats of death and/or bodily harm….

Fortuitously, all of these attacks were taped—including the all-important beginnings—both by the American and the Canadian. This should have ‘put paid’ to ‘who was on first, first and who second’ [the most basic rule on amateur radio], who attacking and who defending [the most basic rule in criminal law/life], who calling whom racial/ethnic slurs, who threatening, etc. Riley/the FCC [and less frequently IC] were contemporaneously informed and on occasion provided the tapes and/or access thereto.

But again, nothing constructive materialized—actually, quite the contrary….

Surprise, surprise, ‘Kalamazoo Cuckoo’ ND8V and ‘Rambo Dan’ W4NTI—those paragons of American radio amateur virtue—verbally reported the Canadian to IC and the American to the FCC! Because Mikee can’t write, the manner in which they did this is again instructive. First, they repeatedly broadcast the respective and sometimes toll-free telephone numbers [on top of the American and Canadian attempting to communicate] using a continuous taped-loop feature and fraudulently exhorted anyone and everyone listening to call in a complaint that they were being interfered with. Then [surprise, surprise], they conveniently called the numbers themselves! This, perversely, after first viciously QRM’ing and threatening the American and Canadian—for more than three hours—using power levels seemingly well in excess of the legal limit , a five element mono-bander [typically directed at the Canadian, because the American was propagationally too close], in purposely splattering War Mode. All of which, including again as to who first properly occupied the frequency, etc., was/is unequivocally evidenced on tapes independently provided Riley by the American as well as the Canadian!!

Surprise, surprise, the ephemeral nature of verbal complaints and the supposed requirement for tapes/hard evidence, etc., notwithstanding, both of these 'august' organizations were then perversely apparently speedily preparing to act—against the two 'recalcitrant' sometime Polish-speaking holdouts—who so "unreasonably" refused to be bullied/driven off any frequency they first lawfully/properly and demonstrably occupied!!!

Almost in desperation, the American then put a $1,000 US 'bounty' for information leading to the arrest, prosecution and conviction of their tormentors/QRM'ers…. Not to be outdone, the Canadian subsequently raised the bounty to $2,000 CDN and for effect added "Dead or Alive", 'Texas/Dubya'-style ….

In March 2003 the Canadian also first drafted and whenever seriously QRM'ed read to his American colleague for comment, evolving versions of The Life of Riley—which ultimately called for Riley's removal from the FCC….

Surprise, surprise, within ~a week of the third weekly 'reading', Riley at long last decided to act—in a manner of speaking. He wrote a letter accusing ND8V of: causing deliberate interference, broadcasting and threatening [the life of the American, no less!]. All of this arising from just one relatively mild attack in the series—lasting only about an hour—on 26 March 2003 as patently incompletely reported by some third party [the identity of which is still unknown].

Riley again categorically threatened ND8V's licence with: either a suspension and revocation hearing, or a loss of voice privileges for the remainder of the licensing term [i.e. for the following ~nine years]. Yet, despite the unequivocal nature of the underlying evidence [eventually Riley apparently received at least three tapes of the same event from three independent sources!] and the relatively strong if curiously obtuse language used, Riley did not call it a Warning Letter….

But, being the petty bureaucrat that he is, Riley obviously did not like having his feet put to the fire, especially in so public a fashion. Thus, even while appearing to take some action against ND8V, he also decided to get even—with [surprise, surprise] the American, being the only one over whom he had some power. Riley disingenuously accused the American of conduct "…as bad as or worse than…" ND8V. Now, that is a standard indeed!!! Shame on you, Riley!

Incidentally, this was the only substantive communication the American had ever had from Riley in his life—the ~dozen reports and costly registered tapes he had submitted on ND8V notwithstanding !

But, no one should be/is fooled. As previously admitted and long suspected in any event, Riley has obviously been sitting near his energized antennas for much too long ! To knowledgeable amateurs,

Riley's self-serving and semi-articulate musings in general and about ND8V and the American and the 'Polish Calling Frequency' in particular, in the circumstances do not even pass an American 'giggle test'….

The American subsequently wrote Riley a strong registered letter challenging him to provide 'chapter and verse' underlying the fuzzy allegations or—as befitting someone of Polish extraction—demanding an apology in lieu! Surprise, surprise, in keeping with perfidious Anglo-Saxon and related standard [irresponsible] administrative behaviour, he of course got neither….

Then, months before his licence was even eligible for a renewal application, ND8V repeatedly gloated on-air and in writing on the Internet, to watch what would happen to the American's renewal [intimating/stating that it would be 'jammed']. Surprise, surprise, ~three months before his renewal date, the American's licence/application was duly off-lined "for review" by Riley, just as ND8V—that exceedingly 'well informed'/connected rumour monger—had predicted….

The American subsequently wrote Riley two more registered letters again very strongly and explicitly asking for reasons/particulars this time underlying the supposed review. Again, of course, he received none, not even an acknowledgement….

Months into the so-called review and sometime before his licence renewal deadline, the American in desperation sent an e-mail to Michael Powell, then Chairman FCC [and Commissioners] outlining his perverse problem with Riley and asking for an explanation/intervention/action. Yet again, he received no reply from the FCC whatsoever ….

Shortly before the renewal deadline, the Canadian personally spoke by telephone with the Inspector-General FCC about Riley's administratively irresponsible behaviour and the American subsequently followed this up in writing, together with all the requisite attachments, asking for an administrative intervention. Shamefully, despite this double and international initiative, the American received no reply from his FCC's so-called 'internal watch-dog' either….

So, ~a month after his licence had theoretically lapsed, the Canadian and American wrote up another synopsis of the long saga and together with copies of most of his unanswered correspondence to Riley/the FCC attached for effect—and arguably most importantly a copy of The Life of Riley [HI]—sent it all to the American's Congressman and subsequently to his Senator….

Surprise, surprise, within a week the American received more positive and even grovelling replies from Riley/the FCC—including his renewed licence and a virtual 'Certificate of Unblemished/Exemplary Amateur Operation' personally signed by Riley—than he had received from Riley/the FCC in his entire life !!!

THE CANADIAN "ARMY OF ONE"

Having been check-mated on the American's renewal/on-air, ND8V and toadies decided to next concentrate on the Canadian, whom they rightly perceived as their most serious adversary.

This included playing music in general and infamous Nazi marches [reportedly banned even in Germany] on top of his on-going QSOs—at power levels seemingly well in excess of the legal limit—sometimes for hours on end….
Some say that this is being orchestrated in part by members of the Ku Klux Klan (KKK), the American Neo-Nazi movement [the American Amateur Nazi Party (AANP) according to K1MAN, HI] and/or 'Brian the Fraudulent Crow' K3VR, the 180 degree phase-shifted American dirty-trickster….
There very arguably was/is some evidence to support this contention. ND8V's comments on his then QRZ call-sign listing "if you wern't born here you don't belong here…go home" together with 'The Stars & Bars', references to the so-called "Liberty Net", links to virulent supporters of Ernst Zundel and other white supremacists, unashamedly observing "James Earl Ray Day" on Martin Luther King Day, etc., refer…. But Riley is still 'sooo confused'…. Or, is he?
In the Summer of 2004 the misfits again attempted to report the Canadian to Industry Canada—wait for it—for the very things they were doing to him/complaied of for only some three years! The obtuse one-sentence 'plaint' in a pitifully weak one-page letter was that the Canadian supposedly interfered, played music and used inappropriate diction against these misfits on-air! There was absolutely no supporting documentation whatsoever….
So, the Canadian penned a ~seven page letter of reply—in effect ripping his local bureaucratic servant another anal orifice—and together with a very 'professional' cover letter and resume extract attached [in the event the Minister needed to hire some competent staff], mailed it all to the Minister Responsible with a suggestion that he send the seven-page 'rocket' downward [a la effluent flows best downhill]…. The Minister, to his credit, did exactly that and to very good effect, HI….
Stymied yet again, the misfits then resorted to the Internet, again….
In a series of unsolicited, hostile and largely unanswered e-mails in the Fall of 2004 a "Bill Bubba" hamradioguyzdh@hotmail.com [N.B. Riley's callsign is K4ZDH], who represented himself as an "officer of the law" [or was that "lew"—Inspector Cluseau fashion, HI?], "government employee" and as someone in "Authority", threatened the Canadian with "a knock on the door"….
Surprise, surprise, ~a week after the last threatening e-mail, two individuals in black leather coat disguises [HI] did indeed briefly attempt to 'accost' the Canadian in his driveway supposedly for his "anti-American" views [which, even if it were true—which it is not—is not a crime in Canada, or the USA for that matter]….
The 'short pushy one' [the pushy ones are usually short, HI] represented himself as a member of the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS), the Canadian equivalent of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA)…. The other said that he was with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) and actually flashed a form of ID purporting to evidence that….
Now, "personating a peace officer" is a criminal offence in Canada….

Suffice it to say that after a short but ‘spirited’ dressing down by the Canadian, both so-called “Authorities” left his property in a decidedly crestfallen manner—and at a ‘very high rate of knots’….
So, in the Fall of 2004 the Canadian suggested and subsequently for several weeks appeared as a featured and highly well-received guest on the innovative and relatively interesting phone-in portion of the K1MAN Bulletin….
This initiative by the Canadian was answered by other stupidities from arguably ~the same group and ~along the same vein…. This time they attempted to involve the US Secret Service using a substantially false report about purported knowledge by the Canadian of a supposed attempt on President George W. Bush’s life during his visit to Canada that year …. Surprise, surprise, that also backfired on the Canadian’s detractors in general and the informant in particular….
There were also other unsolicited, disguised, fraudulent and/or anonymous e-mails in the same time-frame. There were fraudulent e-mails in poor taste that appeared in every material respect as if they were sent by the Canadian to others—and himself, HI…. There was the first but unfortunately not last ~overt, unsolicited e-mail from Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR—spamming the Canadian and others with K1MAN’s typically boring and overly-long “Editorials”[that from the address he knew the Canadian had received]—even as he was complaining to the AOL legal and security departments about, surprise, surprise, “SPAM” [K3VR’s typical 180 degree phase shift MO]! Then, just a day later, the Canadian received another unsolicited e-mail supposedly sent by Dave Sumner K1ZZ of the ARRL from davesumner@hushmail.com linking to an obscene/defamatory/anonymous website [since no longer active]. It is highly probable therefore in all the circumstances that both e-mails came from the same quarter generally and likely from Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR in particular….
Returning to on-air activities, further to yet another secret arrangement, ND8V was until 7 November 2004 forbidden by Riley to operate on 14.275 MHz +/- 3 KHz. Note that this instructively left him the ability to QRM K1MAN then on 14.272 MHz. But why, again, was this arrangement a secret? None of this of course stopped ND8V from maliciously QRM’ing within that window or elsewhere on 20m without ID….
ND8V was also for a significant period of time forbidden to use the same frequency, more than once a week, for his so-called ‘Floating Toady Net’ [note the name—imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, HI]. For months ND8V and his radio hooligans therefore were a ‘travelling wrecking crew’ marauding up and down the phone portion of the 20m band each week-day morning.
One incident, involving a “blind net”, was particularly heart wrenching…. Despite pitiful pleas to be left alone because of the obvious difficulties with changing frequencies—which were explained by the blind net control in some detail—ND8V and K4RUB and toadies were merciless and drove the blind operators off frequency….
In fairness, week-ends were better, because they were ad hoc, thanks largely to the wives of these misfits [most of whom are ~sane and still work for a living], who frowned on these radio stupidities….

Then, surprise, surprise, within days of K1MAN returning to 14.275 MHz on 10 September 2004 due to malicious interference [organized by ND8V] Riley gave ND8V permission to occupy 14.272 MHz on a 'permanent' basis, thus facilitating his 'putting the boots' to anyone—but especially the sometime Polish-speaking stations—trying to work below 14.275 MHz….
As of 7 November 2004 ND8V's wandering days in the wilderness were done and he was surprise, surprise, back on 14.275 MHz 'QRM'ing K1MAN this time 24 hours per day' and using his 'sharp elbows' interestingly enough only below that frequency—i.e. so as to deny the sometimes Polish-speakers the ability to operate anywhere near their 'historic' frequency….
Then, on 21 November 2004—or just 14 days after his secret partial prohibition to be in the vicinity of the 'Polish International Calling Frequency' had ended—ND8V was again caught in flagrante.

This time, he was monitored/recorded not only deliberately interfering with on-going communications but actually fraudulently doing so using a foreign-national's call-sign [surprise, surprise the Canadian's], falsely claiming that he was running a net and [again/still] threatening other radio amateurs. This obviously was another blatant—if ultimately supremely counter-productive—attempt in the series to affect the Canadian's licence with the equally incompetent IC.
This fortuitous turn of events arguably came about because of the Canadian's "unique" way of drawing attention to the situation—by calling Al Qaeda using ~all the Arabic vocabulary he still recalled from his service with the United Nations in the Middle East, HI….
Suffice it to say that the National Security Agency (NSA), and the Canadian equivalent reportedly 'leaned' on the FCC on this one….
Riley was as a consequence initially forced to send ND8V a registered letter with a CD recording of these latest transgressions and request an unprecedented "notarized" response within the usual 20 days .
Surprise, surprise while ND8V at first acknowledged receiving the letter, he claimed that he did not receive the enclosed CD ['the dog ate my homework' defence]! So, Riley obligingly sent him another CD and gave him 10 more days to reply ….
ND8V's subsequent reply did not fully address the complaint and surprise, surprise, this time was not notarized!
But, despite this and Riley's increasingly stronger rhetoric ["Enforcement action may range from monetary forfeiture, removal of voice privileges of license ND8V on all amateur bands, or [sic] license revocation."], very little actually happened. This, because ND8V was again playing secret "let's make yet another deal" behind the scenes with Riley…. He even floated 'trial balloons' on the "UnHam" site and elsewhere to the effect that he might "voluntarily" donate $4,000 to Riley's 'benevolent fund'/bath house and/or agree to a three-year [voice] prohibition, but on 20m only ….
Eventually, in February 2005 ND8V disappeared off 20m and the fight against K1MAN and supposed allies was in retrospect carried on the Internet generally and QRZ.com and eHam.net in particular, under the disingenuous tutelage of Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR.

Then, several months later and again in retrospect about a month before K1MAN’s latest Notice of Apparent Liability (NAL), ND8V’s characteristic QRM’ing MO re-appeared with a vengeance on 20m, but without benefit of ID….
Something was obviously afoot….
All became clear on 7 June 2005 when K1MAN’s NAL became public and surprise, surprise Riley overtly allowed ND8V to return to 20m generally and to 14.275 MHz and his old QRM’ing ways in particular….
In the meantime, as noted above, Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR and others started orchestrating a highly biased Internet campaign to discredit K1MAN and anyone even remotely associated with him….
Fred LLOYD of QRZ.com ran a series of highly skewed forums [fora] culminating in an unprecedented and biased ‘popularity’ poll that surprise, surprise, found ~95% of radio amateurs— American mob-rule fashion—supposedly didn’t like K1MAN and his Bulletins….
Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR set up a series of disguised, semi-disguised and overt sites, one of which was “fairly” titled NO2K1MAN.
Instructively, for example, half of the articles about K1MAN on eHAM alone were either authored or supplied by Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR ! Most of these posts on the Internet in general and on both of the above radio amateur sites in particular, entailed patent bias, self-dealing and worse.
On his sites [both overt and covert] and in his articles and posts Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR initially incited ‘the great unwashed’ of what passes for today’s American radio amateur. Then, he rhetorically asked what the FCC should do about K1MAN…. Then, surprise, surprise, he gave the answer by pointing them to several anonymous sites, that he himself set up—including a petition against K1MAN—but without any disclosure that most of them were his whatsoever…. Then, when the NAL was made public and K1MAN’s licence was not renewed pending the disposition of the NAL, he started to pontificate as to what would happen next when the renewal date came up….
Suffice it to say that despite Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR’s frenetic Internet and on-air activity, nothing substantive happened and K1MAN remained on-air…. In late November 2005 the Canadian consequently invited K1MAN back on 14.275 MHz to squelch some of the wild rumours thereon…. A series of extended QSOs resulted in some very lively and even controversial discussion—and even more malicious QRM—all of which stuck like a bone in the craw of Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR….
So, in mid-December 2005 Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR decided to try to drive a wedge between the Canadian and K1MAN….
In a series of unsolicited e-mails he first attempted to discredit the Canadian by fraudulently changing the Canadian’s old originals ‘as if against K1MAN’ [who was Cc’d by the Canadian, as openness demands].
Way to go Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR….

Then, Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR expanded the action/info addressees to include most of his current cronies…. The Canadian, again for openness, replied to ‘all’ [there is a button that does this in most e-mail packages]…. What happened next was truly Machiavellian.
‘Miami Boob’ W4ASX one of K3VR’s close cronies and Bi-Polar mental-defective, ‘took issue’ with the Canadian addressing him in the group…. The Canadian correctly advised W4ASX to take it up with K3VR who, after all, first put him on the distribution list. When W4ASX came back to the Canadian the second time, along similar but this time more strident lines, the Canadian told him to ‘go suck off Riley again, figuratively or literally’….
Surprise, surprise, W4ASX, who reportedly was a founding member of the Miami Swingers’ Club and an ‘acid head’ in the 1960’s [while the Canadian ‘stood on guard’ for him, so to speak] was, on advice of K3VR, apparently “highly offended” by this admittedly colourful diction, HI….
Within a day of these ‘private’ exchanges “Matthew Graves”, a Pulitzer Prize Winner-wannabe apparently, wrote up the story of this with the expected hyperbole/sordid twist, published it on an obscure English radio amateur website and splashed it around the world on the Internet….
Within hours on an anonymous site long recognized as his, surprise, surprise, K3VR said in effect: ‘lookie, lookie what I have found’, linking to the English site/defamatory article in question….
But, when the article was removed by the English Webmaster and an unequivocal apology tendered, K3VR’s link misfired, HI….
So, K3VR in effect restated the “news”, declaring that the article published in England, was nevertheless “highly accurate”. Question: how would K3VR know that it was accurate while the publisher, having done his due diligence [admittedly after the fact], came to the exact opposite conclusion? Answer: obviously only if K3VR had submitted/wrote the “news” article under a false name of “Matthew Graves”.
K3VR has since attacked/threatened the Canadian:

• on-air directly and especially via his racist surrogates, chief among them ND8V whom he ‘controls’;
• on the Internet, overtly and especially covertly using ‘anonymous’ sites/posts;
• by fraudulently/obscenely altering originals of e-mails and distributed them to others as if they were the Canadian’s;
• by calling him at night on the telephone using a voice changing algorithm;
• by writing that he had infected/cyber-hacked the Canadian’s computer;
• with inciting a ‘petition’ to IC to affect his license [similar to K1MAN];
• by selectively recording/altering his transmissions and re-broadcasting them; and,
• by breaching his/his family’s privacy by publishing names, locations, phone numbers and other personal info on-air and otherwise. Suffice it to say that the Canadian has recently again repeatedly been threatened, by a variety of methods and means, including with another ‘knock on the door’ [this time in the middle of the night, HI] and have again had death threats in the group [“you’re going to die”], etc., uttered against him on-air, sometimes in falsetto or altered voices [monitoring suggests this is somewhat of a specialty with Brian & Co.]….

Needless to say again, as of the time of updating of this piece, Riley has done nothing substantive to ND8V who together with his toadies and second-stringers—now managed by Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR—continues to terrorize 14.275 MHz and vicinity with manifest impunity ….

How come ‘Kalamazoo Cuckoo’ ND8V is still licensed and leads such a “Life of Riley”, many thinking amateurs ask???

There are some cynics who answer generally that the ties that bind—and blind—to this extent are to be found only within ‘secret societies’—such as the Masons, the KKK and groups which meet for trysts in ‘bath houses’…. But, being cynics, they probably over-state if not over-generalize.

Others, who are less jaded, muse simply that Riley is ineffective because he is fundamentally incompetent. Some suggest that Riley’s secretary is weak in basic fact investigation/reasoning ability and has too ready an access to his rubber-stamp signature. Those who are legally trained laconically submit that Riley is simply ‘wet’ on the law. Still others suggest that Riley is legally, administratively and otherwise unethical. A few point out the obvious—that Riley is also from the 4th Call District—and as such is simply covering the ‘butts’ of his fellow southern rednecks [and/or Klan wannabes]. Some have even suggested that Riley is intellectually and otherwise dishonest. While K1MAN bluntly states on-air and in writing that Riley is a “cheap and corrupt politician”.

Some of these characterizations might be true, in whole or at least in part. But, after ~five years of close monitoring and observation, the “relationship” between Riley and ND8V appears to be both much simpler and at the same time much more complex than that....

In a nutshell, ‘Kalamazoo Cuckoo’ ND8V arguably leads “The Life of Riley” because Riley continues to treat this ‘useful ~400+ lb. idiot’ and his uncouth toadies on 14.275 MHz and vicinity as the radio equivalent of thugs and ‘brown-shirts’ in his battle to get K1MAN and his Bulletins off the air. Riley was/is playing the dangerous game of ‘the enemy of my enemy is my friend’ and provides this crude racist bully ‘deep cover’, convenient ‘escape clauses’, lenient sentences and ‘get out of jail free’ cards virtually on request ….

But, why has this gone on for so long? Arguably, because now ‘Kalamazoo Cuckoo’ ND8V also knows ‘where Riley’s bodies are buried’ and possibly more …. Possibly more, because it also appears as if Riley has actually sub-contracted enforcement on HF to this band of thugs led by ND8V and managed by Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR….

Whatever the short and/or long-term tactical merits of Riley’s ad hoc, unprincipled and ultimately Machiavellian approach, because of the collateral damage it causes to non-combatants and innocent others, it constitutes highly irresponsible and unethical administrative behaviour and brings great discredit not only to amateur radio and the FCC, but also to the United States of America as a whole.

It is past time, therefore, not only for Mad Mikee ‘Kalamazoo Cuckoo’ ND8V and Brian ‘The Fraudulent Crow’ K3VR but also for Riley ‘Rot’ Hollingsworth(less) K4ZDH to go....

Thank GOD he's gone!!!

OR WHY MIKEE &#65533;KALAMAZOO CUCKOO&#65533; ND8V WAS &#65533;IN LIKE FLYNN&#65533; AND CONTINUES TO LEAD A CHARMED EXISTENCE WITH RILEY &#65533;ROT&#65533; HOLLINGSWORTH(LESS) K4ZDH

FOREWORD
An early non-annotated version of this investigative/opinion article was first published to unprecedented &#65533;reviews&#65533; on www.eHam.net in September 2003 before being SPAM/e-QRM&#65533;ed off after ~two months by ND8V and toadies.

This SPAM/e-QRM, for a partial example only, initially entailed a form of malicious spamming by ND8V whereby he repeatedly copied/pasted the article/comments [Mikee can&#65533;t write], thereby &#65533;ballooning&#65533; the article and making it confusing for readers/visitors!

When ND8V was subsequently temporarily barred from further postings, he/his slightly more literate co-conspirators/toadies&#65533;chief arguably among them Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR &#65533;resorted to anonymous character assassination/ad hominem attacks on the author [this is one of K3VR&#65533;s specialties]. These attacks, under such instructive nom de plumes as GAY1MAN, OFFICIAL OBSERVER, etc., fraudulently mischaracterized&#65533;180 degrees removed from Standard English meaning&#65533; some extraneous materials gleaned off the Internet. ND8V and toadies can&#65533;t read&#65533;while Brian suffers from a pathological 180 degree cerebral phase shift&#65533;and can&#65533;t even tell &#65533;fucker&#65533; from &#65533;fuckee&#65533; [to use a crude &#65533;Americanism&#65533;] in the style of cause in simple administrative proceedings [a.k.a. &#65533;party of the first part&#65533;, etc., in some jurisdictions].

After these posts were in turn exposed as false [and after being removed by the SysOps], ND8V and K3VR and toadies made similar posts under a fictitious Canadian call sign VE9PMI&#65533;but ultimately &#65533;shot themselves in the foot&#65533; and showed their true fraudulent American identity, when they accused the author [as a fellow Canadian] of treason against the US [neither Mikee nor Brian can reason]!

Finally, ND8V and WD4AWO [one of ND8V&#65533;s close disordered toadies] used the comments section in the manner of a crude/rude/obscene bulletin board/personal message function. Eventually, the SysOps got intimidated by the &#65533;heat&#65533; from Riley & Co. and tired of policing these shenanigans as well as the complaints by the author and ?pulled? the article altogether?. Shame on eHam!

BACKGROUND
Once upon a time in America there came to be a giant of an organization called the American Radio Relay League (ARRL).
Much later, there appeared a short, shy and fundamentally lonely radio amateur with the ?self-effacing? call sign K1MAN [HI].
Sometime, somewhere, somehow yet later K1MAN came to the rather obvious conclusion that large organizations/associations, such as the ARRL or the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), in time lose touch with the membership/constituents they are supposed to serve.
This was not news, in that it has always been so.
Unlike others, who only ?bitched? about it, however, in ~the mid-1980s K1MAN apparently decided to start a Bulletin service on 14.275 MHz a la the ARRL?s W1AW in part to poke sticks into the respective eyes of both one-eyed Cyclops.
Surprise, surprise, the ARRL/FCC did not put K1MAN on their Christmas card lists.... Rather, they attempted to shut him down. Decades and much effort later, they appear to have failed, at least to the extent that K1MAN remains on the air.
Concurrently and arguably partly as a result of K1MAN?s so-called ?bad example?, a group of rogue Citizens Band (CB) operators with an amateur licence [and many others without], decided to congregate on 14.313 MHz which frequency in time became a veritable ?zoo? . This was during the time when the amateur spectrum was supposedly ?self-governing/policing?....
Then, some five years ago the ARRL reportedly proposed and the FCC agreed to appoint one Riley Hollingsworth K4ZDH as a ?radio cop?, to clean up the ?amateur beat? generally . In reality, there were arguably only two items on Riley?s immediate agenda: K1MAN on 14.275 MHz and the mess on 14.313 MHz but for the obvious and not so obvious reasons, very much in that order.
Unfortunately K1MAN had in the meantime contracted to teach full-time and as a consequence had to take a sabbatical from producing the time-consuming Bulletins. Then, at a series of ?hamventions?, Riley the radio cop loudly took credit for driving K1MAN off the air .... This played well at the FCC and among the ?great unwashed? and uninformed in the amateur community and earned Riley the moniker ?The Rotweiler?.
Predictably, this had the same effect on K1MAN as a scarlet handkerchief has on a bull. K1MAN consequently let it widely be known that he would be back with a vengeance and as they say in show business, the stage was set....
In the meantime, Riley continued to ineffectively try to come to grips with the zoo on 14.313 MHz. ND8V a.k.a. ?Kalamazoo Cuckoo? to friends and detractors alike, was one of the chief rabble-rousers, helping to stoke the flames of the infamous ?Radio Wars?. According even to his friends , he had attacked Hispanic-speaking stations ?for years? calling them cockroaches and worse, interfered with formal maritime mobile and informal “trucker” nets and seriously and repeatedly threatened—on and off the air—any number of amateurs who stood up to his bullying . Throughout this, despite being repeatedly informed in writing and otherwise, Riley did virtually nothing. Then, when even the US Coast Guard reportedly had enough of ND8V’s behaviour and caused a search to be made of his station, Riley “The Rotweiler” was finally forced to act: he severely beat ND8V up—with a “wet noodle”—by supposedly suspending his High Frequency (HF) privileges for a curiously “pregnant” nine months! This again played well at the FCC and even in the amateur community, to whom 14.313 MHz in general and to many ND8V in particular, had become such an acute international embarrassment.

Unfortunately, Riley had for some strange reason also made a “Faustian bargain” with ND8V in part to the effect that if he behaved himself for the duration of the suspension, he would [surprise, surprise] be rewarded! All of his past sins were to be forgiven and forgotten—and what is most perverse—would not, as a result of this bargain, be used against him in subsequent disciplinary proceedings .... Obviously, someone had considered the possibility—many prophetically said inevitability—of subsequent disciplinary problems. Who? Why?

Interestingly, as part of this Faustian bargain, Riley apparently forbade ND8V to operate on 14.313 MHz—something he may not have had authority in law to do . But what is truly odd, when ND8V returned to HF—surprise, surprise ~a month before K1MAN’s published intension to resume his Bulletins—he relocated to 14.275 MHz! With virtually the entire 20m Band for ND8V to choose from , this was not entirely serendipitous....

ND8V returned to HF in September 2001 after “serving” only eight of the nine month suspension and within days was [surprise, surprise] back in trouble again . Riley was again forced to use the wet noodle, i.e. to issue another Warning Letter that, for reasons still unclear, but likely related to the Faustian bargain, appears to have again “gone away” without significant or indeed any consequences .

In any event, immediately upon K1MAN’s return, he was [surprise, surprise] subjected to protracted, organized, vicious and malicious interference (QRM) by ND8V and his toadies from the zoo on 14.313 MHz now increasingly congregating on 14.275 MHz. [Interestingly, most of these were/are from the 4th Call District .] According to some, Riley/ the FCC reportedly sat back and listened, but the fact is that they pointedly took no action. Curiously, however, between this relentless QRM’ing and otherwise bad mouthing of K1MAN and inconvenient/ neighbouring others, ND8V could be heard loudly praising Riley—in nauseating fashion—the just completed suspension and by now extensive “rap sheet” at the FCC and elsewhere notwithstanding .... Things were getting curiouser and curiouser....

ENTER “THE POLISH SPEAKERS”

Within yet another month, ND8V organized another attack, this time on a Polish-speaking amateur from New York City (the New Yorker), on the neighbouring frequency of 14.273 MHz for the twin ‘sins’ of in effect usually speaking in a foreign language and being too close to ‘his’ newly chosen frequency.

Now, 14.273 MHz has for only some fifty years unofficially [and obviously non-exclusively] been known/used as the worldwide ‘Polish Calling Frequency’ . For the obvious reasons, most thinking amateurs consider such informal arrangements a very effective and efficient use of the radio spectrum . But, this was shortly after ‘9/11’ and ND8V’s apologists say that he should be forgiven for this misguided sense of ‘American patriotism’’.

Surprise, surprise, this attack on the sometime Polish-speakers generally and on the New Yorker in particular, had a similar modus operandi (MO) to that used a year earlier on the Hispanics! ND8V again in quick succession organized and/or encouraged his toadies from 14.275 MHz and others to write two transparently fictitious complaints to Riley against the New Yorker. Perversely, these involved allegations of ‘perceived’ overly-wide signals and interference no less , backed up by the ‘thinnest’ of malicious ‘drivel’ off the Internet. One complaint concerned chiefly what were clearly fraudulent rebroadcasts of the New Yorker’s CQs [they taped and retransmitted his signals on top of their own and then complained to Riley about it!].

To even casual observers, this was/is the well-known MO of delinquent CB’ers and together with voice imitations, was/is a recognized specialty of the zoo in general and of ND8V in particular. As such, the complaints were an obviously ‘put up job’.

Nevertheless, without checking the bona fides of the complaints or their chief instigator/organizer, or apparently doing any independent investigation whatsoever , Riley obligingly quickly issued two Warning Letters in succession to the New Yorker. These were then published on the ARRL website. This was/is Riley’s standard operating procedure. Several knowledgeable and legally trained observers have aptly called this approach to enforcement ‘Trial By Press Release’. The ARRL’s by-and-large noble institutional memory should be offended and ashamed to be party to this .

These Warning Letters emboldened ND8V who was then openly heard bragging to his toadies that he would drive the sometime Polish-speakers off the neighbouring frequency in general and the New Yorker off the air in particular.

Then, two of the sometime Polish-speakers on and occasional users of 14.273 MHz [one American and one Canadian] stepped into the breach and attempted to defend their fellow amateur’.

Initially, first the American and then the Canadian helped the New Yorker draft and send three lengthy and increasingly detailed registered letters of reply to Riley’not one of which to-date has even been acknowledged!

The American then sent a registered letter covering an audiotape evidencing malicious QRM and a death threat to the New Yorker uttered by none other than’surprise, surprise’’Dumbo Bobbie’ WD4AWO’one of the original complainants and ND8V's regular toady from the backwoods of Tennessee. For some curious reason, Riley has not to-date deigned to acknowledge this serious incident either.

Over the next several months the Canadian followed up with some 20 very detailed e-mails, each one evidencing at least one instance of serious malicious QRM by ND8V and toadies. After insistent prompts Riley periodically laconically if inarticulately acknowledged some of these e-mails not to be confused with answering them but of course he did nothing substantive about the complaints as usual.

Then, after about six months of this benign neglect and worse and the continuing vicious attacks by ND8V, Riley finally attempted to placate the increasingly irate Canadian by advising, in writing, that he would hold a review of ND8V's licence status at his upcoming renewal time. Inexplicably, however, a couple of months later, Riley/the FCC renewed ND8V's licence without any review whatsoever! When confronted about this by the Canadian, Riley professed utter surprise and blamed the supposed error on some administrative foul-up. Others thought/think otherwise .

Riley's reply to this dressing down was apoplectic, but informative for a change. He wrote that the Canadian should not bother him with "blow-by-blow" details each one carefully crafted as a possible exhibit to any number of affidavits! Riley also stated that he had just noticed that the writer was a Canadian amateur!! This, recall, after more than 20 e-mails, all except one of which [a forward from the American] were very clearly identified with a Canadian call sign!!! The logical conclusion to be drawn from this is that Riley is either grossly inattentive to detail and/or that he doesn't recognize a Canadian call sign when he sees one some 20 times in succession and/ or that he is disingenuous [for those not familiar with the last word, look it up under L in the dictionary]. Irrespective, Riley thereby very arguably proved himself to be unfit for the important position that he holds at the FCC.

In his reply, Riley also unilaterally changed the rules of engagement in mid-stream and suggested that the Canadian send him audiotapes instead of the detailed blow-by-blow e-mails .

It is interesting to note in passing that the form of complaint to the FCC is nowhere specified. In fact, an FCC Commissioner had shortly before this delivered a public rocket to the Enforcement Bureau [of which Riley is Special Counsel, you might recall] on this very point. Also, there are serious and possibly insurmountable evidentiary problems with tapes made by various and sundry.

Nevertheless, the Canadian subsequently sent Riley a detailed letter covering a tape recording of a typical example, among others, of ND8V's usual sociopathic QRM. This incident was even independently corroborated by a station from California, part of a Hawaiian net which was 2 kHz down and was contemporaneously also maliciously QRM'ed by ND8V in the same session..and luckily caught on the very same tape! Despite this ﷺdouble whammyﷺ, from two independent sources that did not previously know each other, Riley never replied to the Californian [a retired Sergeant of police, incidentally] and only grudgingly acknowledged the ﷺpeskyﷺ Canadian. But, to-date, he has taken no substantive action on the incidents as usualﷺ.

All the while ND8V perversely continued to ﷺsuck upﷺ to and praise Riley on-air as if he were his ﷺlong lost budﷺ and bragged about unprecedented access to and sometimes daily telephone contact with him [while practicing attorneys regularly could not get through].... To subjective and objective observers alike, things were not only getting curiouser and curiouser, but increasingly bizarre....
Then on 25 November 2002 Riley wrote ND8V an unprecedented strong Warning Letter noting that the FCC continues to receive complaints about him concerning the ﷺﷺappropriation of certain frequencies ﷺﷺ and ﷺﷺinterference to certain operatorsﷺ. Riley inter alia cautioned that: ﷺAny future incidentsﷺeven a single incident, will result in a monetary forfeiture and revocation proceeding against your licenseﷺ and requested that ND8V refrain from operation on the 20m Band .
This unprecedented ﷺﷺlast warning, to last warning, to last warning, etc....ﷺ was again based on multiple, independent and well-founded complaints from several amateurs operating tens of kHz apart. At least two of these complaints were from mature, highly credible and wholly independent sources who did not then even know of the otherﷺs existence. But Riley obviously knewﷺand gave both the ﷺmushroom treatmentﷺ! Interestingly, both of these sources were also legally trainedﷺ. Moreover, one of the complaints was in addition reduced to/ backed up by a very persuasive/extensive Statutory Declaration ﷺ.
Surprise, surprise, distressingly similar historical fact patterns and well-founded/drafted independent complaints notwithstanding, ND8V was able to dispose of them via only one ﷺprivateﷺ telephone call to his ﷺbudﷺ Riley! Therein, in true sociopath style [aided by his ﷺcalm voice characteristicsﷺ no doubtﷺND8V later bragged about this on-air], he simply described the multiple independent complaints to Riley as ﷺall liesﷺ. Now, while Mikee unashamedly is an accomplished practitioner of ﷺThe Big Lieﷺ approach , what is nevertheless so inexplicable and bizarre in the circumstances is that Riley obviously ﷺboughtﷺ this preposterously ﷺthinﷺ excuse!
STOP PRESS!
SPECIAL COUNSEL RILEY ﷺROTﷺ HOLLINGSWORTH K4ZDH AGAIN SNOOKERED BY ﷺCALM VOICE CHARACTERISTICSﷺ OF MIKEE ﷺKALAMAZOO CUCKOOﷺ ND8Vﷺ.
After receiving such ﷺunimpeachable evidence to the contraryﷺ from ND8V ﷺRiley then shamelessly rescinded the Warning Letterﷺbefore it was even published!!! This raises the logical question: was Riley incompetent when he initially issued the unprecedented warning to ND8Vﷺ or when he rescinded it based on a simple telephone call from ND8Vﷺor both?
This again of course only emboldened ND8V who then sold his perfectly serviceable FT-1000D and bought an IC-756 PROﷺso as to more effectively ﷺkeep watchﷺ on and ﷺsplatterﷺ the sometime Polish-speakers especially, in what he instructively called ?War Mode?.

Subsequently, according to ND8V and his toadies, 14.275 MHz and vicinity was ?always occupied?, even when no one was using it ! ND8V published a ?schedule? to that effect on QRZ.com and anyone?but especially the sometime Polish-speakers?attempting to use any frequency between ~14.270 MHz and ~14.280 MHz would then immediately be ?stomped on? and/or [surprise, surprise] loudly and perversely be accused of interfering with him!
If a few of the sometime Polish-speakers [soon, there were only two !] could not thus be chased off and stood their ground, ND8V would then threaten them with being reported to his ?friend and lawyer?, Riley. For effect, he would even occasionally pass out Riley?s direct/private telephone numbers! By this time he also repeatedly started threatening the Canadian generally and with a report to Industry Canada (IC), the Canadian equivalent of the FCC [and equally ineffective] in particular . All the while ND8V?s regular toadies [chief among them ?Rambo Dan? W4NTI, ?Dumbo Bobbie? WD4AWO, ?Rude Rube? K4RUB and ?Miami Boob? W4ASX to partially name only a few of the more unbalanced and guilty], were ready and more than willing in the background to uncritically back him up in whatever he said or did?. Soon, no one ??rednecks? from the 4th Call District and/or ND8V?s usual toadies and sycophants excepted?was safe in the middle of the 20 m Phone Band! All the while Riley/the FCC and even IC, despite being repeatedly advised, did nothing?.
The American subsequently sent Riley more than a handful of registered letters covering some dozen tapes/instances of serious malicious QRM by ND8V. But of course Riley did not acknowledge this considerable effort and expense either?.
Then in February 2003 ND8V together with his toadies organized a series of vicious on-air attacks on the two sometime Polish-speaking holdouts. That these attacks were also premeditated, organized and racially/ethnically driven is beyond question. Several amateurs and even a short-wave listener independently reported ND8V and his toadies ?laying in wait? and preparing for them as such. The attacks were on an unprecedented scale and of ferocious intensity. Many of them literally lasted for hours! Some again involved repeated threats of death and/or bodily harm?.
Fortuitously, all of these attacks were taped?including the all-important beginnings?both by the American and the Canadian. This should have ?put paid? to ?who was on first, first and who second? [the most basic rule on amateur radio], who attacking and who defending [the most basic rule in criminal law/life], who calling whom racial/ethnic slurs, who threatening, etc. Riley/the FCC [and less frequently IC] were contemporaneously informed and on occasion provided the tapes and/or access thereto.
But again, nothing constructive materialized?actually, quite the contrary?.
Surprise, surprise, ?Kalamazoo Cuckoo? ND8V and ?Rambo Dan? W4NTI? those paragons of American radio amateur virtue?verbally reported the Canadian to IC and the American to the FCC! Because Mikee can't write, the manner in which they did this is again instructive. First, they repeatedly broadcast the respective and sometimes toll-free telephone numbers [on top of the American and Canadian attempting to communicate] using a continuous taped-loop feature and fraudulently exhorted anyone and everyone listening to call in a complaint that they were being interfered with. Then [surprise, surprise], they conveniently called the numbers themselves! This, perversely, after first viciously QRM'ing and threatening the American and Canadian for more than three hours using power levels seemingly well in excess of the legal limit , a five element mono-bander [typically directed at the Canadian, because the American was propagationally too close], in purposely splattering War Mode. All of which, including again as to who first properly occupied the frequency, etc., was/is unequivocally evidenced on tapes independently provided Riley by the American as well as the Canadian!!

Surprise, surprise, the ephemeral nature of verbal complaints and the supposed requirement for tapes/hard evidence, etc., notwithstanding, both of these 'august' organizations were then perversely apparently speedily preparing to act against the two 'recalcitrant' sometime Polish-speaking holdouts who so 'unreasonably' refused to be bullied/ driven off any frequency they first lawfully/properly and demonstrably occupied!!!

Almost in desperation, the American then put a $1,000 US 'bounty' for information leading to the arrest, prosecution and conviction of their tormentors/QRM'ers'. Not to be outdone, the Canadian subsequently raised the bounty to $2,000 CDN and for effect added 'Dead or Alive', 'Texas/Dubya'-style '.

In March 2003 the Canadian also first drafted and whenever seriously QRM'ed read to his American colleague for comment, evolving versions of The Life of Riley'which ultimately called for Riley's removal from the FCC'.

Surprise, surprise, within ~a week of the third weekly 'reading', Riley at long last decided to act'in a manner of speaking. He wrote a letter accusing ND8V of: causing deliberate interference, broadcasting and threatening [the life of the American, no less!]. All of this arising from just one relatively mild attack in the series'lasting only about an hour'on 26 March 2003 as patently incompletely reported by some third party [the identity of which is still unknown].

Riley again categorically threatened ND8V's licence with: either a suspension and revocation hearing, or a loss of voice privileges for the remainder of the licensing term [i.e. for the following ~nine years]. Yet, despite the unequivocal nature of the underlying evidence [eventually Riley apparently received at least three tapes of the same event from three independent sources!] and the relatively strong if curiously obtuse language used, Riley did not call it a Warning Letter'.

But, being the petty bureaucrat that he is, Riley obviously did not like having his feet put to the fire, especially in so public a fashion. Thus, even while appearing to take some action against ND8V, he also decided to get even with [surprise, surprise] the American, being the only one over whom he had some power. Riley disingenuously accused the American of conduct as bad as or worse than ND8V. Now, that is a standard indeed!!! Shame on you, Riley!

Incidentally, this was the only substantive communication the American had ever had from Riley in his life the ~dozen reports and costly registered tapes he had submitted on ND8V notwithstanding !

But, no one should be/is fooled. As previously admitted and long suspected in any event, Riley has obviously been sitting near his energized antennas for much too long ! To knowledgeable amateurs, Riley's self-serving and semi-articulate musings in general and about ND8V and the American and the "Polish Calling Frequency" in particular, in the circumstances do not even pass an American "giggle test".

The American subsequently wrote Riley a strong registered letter challenging him to provide "chapter and verse" underlying the fuzzy allegations or as befitting someone of Polish extraction demanding an apology in lieu! Surprise, surprise, in keeping with perfidious Anglo-Saxon and related standard [irresponsible] administrative behaviour, he of course got neither.

Then, months before his licence was even eligible for a renewal application, ND8V repeatedly gloated on-air and in writing on the Internet, to watch what would happen to the American's renewal [intimating/stating that it would be "jammed"]. Surprise, surprise, ~three months before his renewal date, the American's licence/ application was duly off-lined "for review" by Riley, just as ND8V" that exceedingly "well informed"/connected rumour monger"had predicted".

The American subsequently wrote Riley two more registered letters again very strongly and explicitly asking for reasons/particulars this time underlying the supposed review. Again, of course, he received none, not even an acknowledgement.

Months into the so-called review and sometime before his licence renewal deadline, the American in desperation sent an e-mail to Michael Powell, then Chairman FCC [and Commissioners] outlining his perverse problem with Riley and asking for an explanation/intervention/ action. Yet again, he received no reply from the FCC whatsoever .

Shortly before the renewal deadline, the Canadian personally spoke by telephone with the Inspector-General FCC about Riley's administratively irresponsible behaviour and the American subsequently followed this up in writing, together with all the requisite attachments, asking for an administrative intervention. Shamefully, despite this double and international initiative, the American received no reply from his FCC's so-called "internal watch-dog" either.

So, ~a month after his licence had theoretically lapsed, the Canadian and American wrote up another synopsis of the long saga and together with copies of most of his unanswered correspondence to Riley/the FCC attached for effect&#65533;and arguably most importantly a copy of The Life of Riley [HI]&#65533;sent it all to the American&#65533;s Congressman and subsequently to his Senator&#65533;.

Surprise, surprise, within a week the American received more positive and even grovelling replies from Riley/the FCC&#65533;including his renewed licence and a virtual &#65533;Certificate of Unblemished/Exemplary Amateur Operation&#65533; personally signed by Riley&#65533;than he had received from Riley/ the FCC in his entire life !!!

THE CANADIAN &#65533;ARMY OF ONE&#65533;
Having been check-mated on the American&#65533;s renewal/on-air, ND8V and toadies decided to next concentrate on the Canadian, whom they rightly perceived as their most serious adversary.
This included playing music in general and infamous Nazi marches [reportedly banned even in Germany] on top of his on-going QSOs&#65533;at power levels seemingly well in excess of the legal limit&#65533;sometimes for hours on end&#65533;.
Some say that this is being orchestrated in part by members of the Ku Klux Klan (KKK), the American Neo-Nazi movement [the American Amateur Nazi Party (AANP) according to K1MAN, HI] and/or &#65533;Brian the Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR, the 180 degree phase-shifted American dirty-trickster&#65533;.
There very arguably was/is some evidence to support this contention.
ND8V&#65533;s comments on his then QRZ call-sign listing &#65533;if you wern&#65533;t born here you don&#65533;t belong here&#65533;go home&#65533; together with &#65533;The Stars & Bars&#65533;, references to the so-called &#65533;Liberty Net&#65533;, links to virulent supporters of Ernst Zundel and other white supremacists, unashamedly observing &#65533;James Earl Ray Day&#65533; on Martin Luther King Day, etc., refer&#65533;. But Riley is still &#65533;sooo confused&#65533;&#65533;. Or, is he?
In the Summer of 2004 the misfits again attempted to report the Canadian to Industry Canada&#65533;wait for it&#65533;for the very things they were doing to him/complaied of for only some three years! The obtuse one-sentence &#65533;plaint&#65533; in a pitifully weak one-page letter was that the Canadian supposedly interfered, played music and used inappropriate diction against these misfits on-air! There was absolutely no supporting documentation whatsoever&#65533;.
So, the Canadian penned a ~seven page letter of reply&#65533;in effect ripping his local bureaucratic servant another anal orifice&#65533;and together with a very &#65533;professional&#65533; cover letter and resume extract attached [in the event the Minister needed to hire some competent staff], mailed it all to the Minister Responsible with a suggestion that he send the seven-page &#65533;rocket&#65533; downward [a la effluent flows best downhill]&#65533;. The Minister, to his credit, did exactly that and to very good effect, HI&#65533;.
Stymied yet again, the misfits then resorted to the Internet, again&#65533;.
In a series of unsolicited, hostile and largely unanswered e-mails in the Fall of 2004 a &#65533;Bill Bubba&#65533; hamradioguyzdh@hotmail.com [N.B. Riley&#65533;s callsign is K4ZDH], who represented himself as an &#65533;officer of the law&#65533; [or was that &#65533;lew&#65533;&#65533;Inspector Cluseau fashion, HI?], &#65533;government employee&#65533; and as someone in &#65533;Authority&#65533;, threatened the Canadian with ?a knock on the door??.

Surprise, surprise, ~a week after the last threatening e-mail, two individuals in black leather coat disguises [HI] did indeed briefly attempt to ?accost? the Canadian in his driveway supposedly for his ?anti-American? views [which, even if it were true?which it is not?is not a crime in Canada, or the USA for that matter]?.
The ?short pushy one? [the pushy ones are usually short, HI] represented himself as a member of the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS), the Canadian equivalent of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA)?. The other said that he was with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) and actually flashed a form of ID purporting to evidence that?.
Now, ?personating a peace officer? is a criminal offence in Canada?. Suffice it to say that after a short but ?spirited? dressing down by the Canadian, both so-called ?Authorities? left his property in a decidedly crestfallen manner?and at a ?very high rate of knots??.
So, in the Fall of 2004 the Canadian suggested and subsequently for several weeks appeared as a featured and highly well-received guest on the innovative and relatively interesting phone-in portion of the K1MAN Bulletin?.
This initiative by the Canadian was answered by other stupidities from arguably ~the same group and ~along the same vein?. This time they attempted to involve the US Secret Service using a substantially false report about purported knowledge by the Canadian of a supposed attempt on President George W. Bush?s life during his visit to Canada that year ?. Surprise, surprise, that also backfired on the Canadian?s detractors in general and the informant in particular?.
There were also other unsolicited, disguised, fraudulent and/or anonymous e-mails in the same time-frame. There were fraudulent e-mails in poor taste that appeared in every material respect as if they were sent by the Canadian to others?and himself, HI?. There was the first but unfortunately not last ~overt, unsolicited e-mail from Brian ?The Fraudulent Crow? K3VR?spamming the Canadian and others with K1MAN?s typically boring and overly-long ?Editorials?[that from the address he knew the Canadian had received]?even as he was complaining to the AOL legal and security departments about, surprise, surprise, ?SPAM? [K3VR?s typical 180 degree phase shift MO]! Then, just a day later, the Canadian received another unsolicited e-mail supposedly sent by Dave Sumner K1ZZ of the ARRL from davesumner@hushmail.com linking to an obscene/defamatory/anonymous website [since no longer active]. It is highly probable therefore in all the circumstances that both e-mails came from the same quarter generally and likely from Brian ?The Fraudulent Crow? K3VR in particular?.
Returning to on-air activities, further to yet another secret arrangement, ND8V was until 7 November 2004 forbidden by Riley to operate on 14.275 MHz +/- 3 KHz. Note that this instructively left him the ability to QRM K1MAN then on 14.272 MHz. But why, again, was this arrangement a secret? None of this of course stopped ND8V from maliciously QRM?ing within that window or elsewhere on 20m without

ND8V was also for a significant period of time forbidden to use the same frequency, more than once a week, for his so-called &#65533;Floating Toady Net&#65533; [note the name&#65533;imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, HI]. For months ND8V and his radio hooligans therefore were a &#65533;travelling wrecking crew&#65533; marauding up and down the phone portion of the 20m band each week-day morning.
One incident, involving a &#65533;blind net&#65533;, was particularly heart wrenching&#65533;. Despite pitiful pleas to be left alone because of the obvious difficulties with changing frequencies&#65533;which were explained by the blind net control in some detail&#65533;ND8V and K4RUB and toadies were merciless and drove the blind operators off frequency&#65533;.
In fairness, week-ends were better, because they were ad hoc, thanks largely to the wives of these misfits [most of whom are ~sane and still work for a living], who frowned on these radio stupidities&#65533;.
Then, surprise, surprise, within days of K1MAN returning to 14.275 MHz on 10 September 2004 due to malicious interference [organized by ND8V] Riley gave ND8V permission to occupy 14.272 MHz on a &#65533;permanent&#65533; basis, thus facilitating his &#65533;putting the boots&#65533; to anyone&#65533;but especially the sometime Polish-speaking stations&#65533;trying to work below 14.275 MHz&#65533;.
As of 7 November 2004 ND8V&#65533;s wandering days in the wilderness were done and he was surprise, surprise, back on 14.275 MHz &#65533;QRM&#65533;ing K1MAN this time 24 hours per day&#65533; and using his &#65533;sharp elbows&#65533; interestingly enough only below that frequency&#65533;i.e. so as to deny the sometimes Polish-speakers the ability to operate anywhere near their &#65533;historic&#65533; frequency&#65533;.
Then, on 21 November 2004&#65533;or just 14 days after his secret partial prohibition to be in the vicinity of the &#65533;Polish International Calling Frequency&#65533; had ended&#65533;ND8V was again caught in flagrante.

This time, he was monitored/recorded not only deliberately interfering with on-going communications but actually fraudulently doing so using a foreign-national&#65533;s call-sign [surprise, surprise the Canadian&#65533;s], falsely claiming that he was running a net and [again/still] threatening other radio amateurs. This obviously was another blatant&#65533; if ultimately supremely counter-productive&#65533;attempt in the series to affect the Canadian&#65533;s licence with the equally incompetent IC.
This fortuitous turn of events arguably came about because of the Canadian&#65533;s &#65533;unique&#65533; way of drawing attention to the situation&#65533;by calling Al Qaeda using ~all the Arabic vocabulary he still recalled from his service with the United Nations in the Middle East, HI&#65533;.
Suffice it to say that the National Security Agency (NSA), and the Canadian equivalent reportedly &#65533;leaned&#65533; on the FCC on this one&#65533;.
Riley was as a consequence initially forced to send ND8V a registered letter with a CD recording of these latest transgressions and request an unprecedented &#65533;notarized&#65533; response within the usual 20 days .
Surprise, surprise while ND8V at first acknowledged receiving the letter, he claimed that he did not receive the enclosed CD [&#65533;the dog ate my homework&#65533; defence]! So, Riley obligingly sent him another CD and gave him 10 more days to reply &#65533;.

ND8V&#65533;s subsequent reply did not fully address the complaint and surprise, surprise, this time was not notarized!
But, despite this and Riley&#65533;s increasingly stronger rhetoric [&#65533;Enforcement action may range from monetary forfeiture, removal of voice privileges of license ND8V on all amateur bands, or [sic] license revocation.&#65533;], very little actually happened. This, because ND8V was again playing secret &#65533;let&#65533;s make yet another deal&#65533; behind the scenes with Riley&#65533;. He even floated &#65533;trial balloons&#65533; on the &#65533;UnHam&#65533; site and elsewhere to the effect that he might &#65533;voluntarily&#65533; donate $4,000 to Riley&#65533;s &#65533;benevolent fund&#65533;/bath house and/or agree to a three-year [voice] prohibition, but on 20m only &#65533;.
Eventually, in February 2005 ND8V disappeared off 20m and the fight against K1MAN and supposed allies was in retrospect carried on the Internet generally and QRZ.com and eHam.net in particular, under the disingenuous tutelage of Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR.
Then, several months later and again in retrospect about a month before K1MAN&#65533;s latest Notice of Apparent Liability (NAL), ND8V&#65533;s characteristic QRM&#65533;ing MO re-appeared with a vengeance on 20m, but without benefit of ID&#65533;.
Something was obviously afoot&#65533;.
In the meantime, as noted above, Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR and others started orchestrating a highly biased Internet campaign to discredit K1MAN and anyone even remotely associated with him&#65533;.
Fred LLOYD of QRZ.com ran a series of highly skewed forums [fora] culminating in an unprecedented and biased &#65533;popularity&#65533; poll that surprise, surprise, found ~95% of radio amateurs&#65533; American mob-rule fashion&#65533;supposedly didn&#65533;t like K1MAN and his Bulletins&#65533;.
Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR set up a series of disguised, semi-disguised and overt sites, one of which was &#65533;fairly&#65533; titled NO2K1MAN.
Instructively, for example, half of the articles about K1MAN on eHAM alone were either authored or supplied by Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR ! Most of these posts on the Internet in general and on both of the above radio amateur sites in particular, entailed patent bias, self-dealing and worse.
On his sites [both overt and covert] and in his articles and posts Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR initially incited &#65533;the great unwashed&#65533; of what passes for today&#65533;s American radio amateur. Then, he rhetorically asked what the FCC should do about K1MAN&#65533;. Then, surprise, surprise, he gave the answer by pointing them to several anonymous sites, that he himself set up&#65533;including a petition against K1MAN&#65533;but without any disclosure that most of them were his whatsoever&#65533;. Then, when the NAL was made public and K1MAN&#65533;s licence was not renewed pending the disposition of the NAL, he started to pontificate as to what would happen next when the renewal date came up&#65533;.

Suffice it to say that despite Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR&#65533;s frenetic Internet and on-air activity, nothing substantive happened and K1MAN remained on-air&#65533;. In late November 2005 the Canadian consequently invited K1MAN back on 14.275 MHz to squelch some of the wild rumours thereon&#65533;. A series of extended QSOs resulted in some very lively and even controversial discussion&#65533;and even more malicious QRM&#65533; all of which stuck like a bone in the craw of Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR&#65533;.
So, in mid-December 2005 Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR decided to try to drive a wedge between the Canadian and K1MAN&#65533;.
In a series of unsolicited e-mails he first attempted to discredit the Canadian by fraudulently changing the Canadian&#65533;s old originals &#65533;as if against K1MAN&#65533; [who was Cc&#65533;d by the Canadian, as openness demands].
Way to go Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR&#65533;.
Then, Brian &#65533;The Fraudulent Crow&#65533; K3VR expanded the action/info addressees to include most of his current cronies&#65533;. The Canadian, again for openness, replied to &#65533;all&#65533; [there is a button that does this in most e-mail packages]&#65533;. What happened next was truly Machiavellian.
&#65533;
&#65533;Miami Boob&#65533; W4ASX one of K3VR&#65533;s close cronies and Bi-Polar mental-defective, &#65533;took issue&#65533; with the Canadian addressing him in the group&#65533;. The Canadian correctly advised W4ASX to take it up with K3VR who, after all, first put him on the distribution list. When W4ASX came back to the Canadian the second time, along similar but this time more strident lines, the Canadian told him to &#65533;go suck off Riley again, figuratively or literally&#65533;&#65533;.
Surprise, surprise, W4ASX, who reportedly was a founding member of the Miami Swingers&#65533; Club and an &#65533;acid head&#65533; in the 1960&#65533;s [while the Canadian &#65533;stood on guard&#65533; for him, so to speak] was, on advice of K3VR, apparently &#65533;highly offended&#65533; by this admittedly colourful diction, HI&#65533;.
Within a day of these &#65533;private&#65533; exchanges &#65533;Matthew Graves&#65533;, a Pulitzer Prize Winner-wannabe apparently, wrote up the story of this with the expected hyperbole/sordid twist, published it on an obscure English radio amateur website and splashed it around the world on the Internet&#65533;.
Within hours on an anonymous site long recognized as his, surprise, surprise, K3VR said in effect: &#65533;lookie, lookie what I have found&#65533;, linking to the English site/defamatory article in question&#65533;.
But, when the article was removed by the English Webmaster and an unequivocal apology tendered, K3VR&#65533;s link misfired, HI&#65533;.
So, K3VR in effect restated the &#65533;news&#65533;, declaring that the article published in England, was nevertheless &#65533;highly accurate&#65533;. Question: how would K3VR know that it was accurate while the publisher, having done his due diligence [admittedly after the fact], came to the exact opposite conclusion? Answer: obviously only if K3VR had submitted/ wrote the &#65533;news&#65533; article under a false name of &#65533;Matthew Graves&#65533;.

K3VR has since attacked/threatened the Canadian:

• on-air directly and especially via his racist surrogates, chief among them ND8V whom he •controls•;
• on the Internet, overtly and especially covertly using •anonymous• sites/posts;
• by fraudulently/obscenely altering originals of e-mails and distributed them to others as if they were the Canadian•s;
• by calling him at night on the telephone using a voice changing algorithm;
• by writing that he had infected/cyber-hacked the Canadian•s computer;
• with inciting a •petition• to IC to affect his license [similar to K1MAN];
• by selectively recording/altering his transmissions and re-broadcasting them; and,
• by breaching his/his family•s privacy by publishing names, locations, phone numbers and other personal info on-air and otherwise.

Suffice it to say that the Canadian has recently again repeatedly been threatened, by a variety of methods and means, including with another •knock on the door• [this time in the middle of the night, HI] and have again had death threats in the group [•you•re going to die•], etc., uttered against him on-air, sometimes in falsetto or altered voices [monitoring suggests this is somewhat of a specialty with Brian & Co.]•.

Needless to say again, as of the time of updating of this piece, Riley has done nothing substantive to ND8V who together with his toadies and second-stringers•now managed by Brian •The Fraudulent Crow• K3VR• continues to terrorize 14.275 MHz and vicinity with manifest impunity •.

How come •Kalamazoo Cuckoo• ND8V is still licensed and leads such a •Life of Riley•, many thinking amateurs ask???

There are some cynics who answer generally that the ties that bind•and blind•to this extent are to be found only within •secret societies••• such as the Masons, the KKK and groups which meet for trysts in •bath houses•••. But, being cynics, they probably over-state if not over-generalize.

Others, who are less jaded, muse simply that Riley is ineffective because he is fundamentally incompetent. Some suggest that Riley•s secretary is weak in basic fact investigation/reasoning ability and has too ready an access to his rubber-stamp signature. Those who are legally trained laconically submit that Riley is simply •wet• on the law. Still others suggest that Riley is legally, administratively and otherwise unethical. A few point out the obvious•that Riley is also from the 4th Call District•and as such is simply covering the •butts• of his fellow southern rednecks [and/or Klan wannabes]. Some have even suggested that Riley is intellectually and otherwise dishonest. While K1MAN bluntly states on-air and in writing that Riley is a •cheap and corrupt politician•.

Some of these characterizations might be true, in whole or at least in part. But, after ~five years of close monitoring and observation, the "relationship" between Riley and ND8V appears to be both much simpler and at the same time much more complex than that....

In a nutshell, "Kalamazoo Cuckoo" ND8V arguably leads "The Life of Riley" because Riley continues to treat this "useful ~400+ lb. idiot" and his uncouth toadies on 14.275 MHz and vicinity as the radio equivalent of thugs and "brown-shirts" in his battle to get K1MAN and his Bulletins off the air. Riley was/is playing the dangerous game of "the enemy of my enemy is my friend" and provides this crude racist bully "deep cover", convenient "escape clauses", lenient sentences and "get out of jail free" cards virtually on request ".

But, why has this gone on for so long? Arguably, because now "Kalamazoo Cuckoo" ND8V also knows "where Riley"s bodies are buried" and possibly more ". Possibly more, because it also appears as if Riley has actually sub-contracted enforcement on HF to this band of thugs led by ND8V and managed by Brian "The Fraudulent Crow" K3VR".

Whatever the short and/or long-term tactical merits of Riley"s ad hoc, unprincipled and ultimately Machiavellian approach, because of the collateral damage it causes to non-combatants and innocent others, it constitutes highly irresponsible and unethical administrative behaviour and brings great discredit not only to amateur radio and the FCC, but also to the United States of America as a whole.

It is past time, therefore, not only for Mad Mikee "Kalamazoo Cuckoo" ND8V and Brian "The Fraudulent Crow" K3VR but also for Riley "Rot" Hollingsworth(less) K4ZDH to go....

So, Donald Rumsfeld is briefing George Bush in the Oval Office.
"Oh and finally, sir, three Brazilian soldiers were killed in Iraq today."
Bush goes pale, his jaw hanging open in stunned disbelief. He buries his face in his hands, muttering "My God...My God".
"Mr. President," says Cheney, "we lose soldiers all the time, and it's terrible. But I've never seen you so upset. What's the matter?"
Bush looks up and says..."How many is a Brazilian?"

http://www.screedbomb.info/coosn/
Q: Who is eligible for a COOSN?

A: Kookologists with 10 or more verifiable UV points may exchange these points for a Cabal Obsidian Order Sombrero Number.

Q: Who is not eligible for a COOSN?

A: Certified net.kooks; notorious net.cretins; terminally clueless fuckwits; previous winners of kook-awards, unless an official pardon has been granted by the FNVW.

Q: How do I apply for a COOSN?

A: Make a Usenet post to alt.usenet.kooks (crossposting to your favourite newsgroups is acceptable); to ensure that the FNVW actually sees your request, try to use either of the following formats for the subject line:

[COOSN Application] Your name (or best known handle) here
[COOSN Request] Your name (or best known handle) here

Please provide a list of 10 UV points - along with verifiable evidence for each point wherever possible.

Q: Can one Kookologist nominate another Kookologist for a COOSN?

A: Yes, but the proposer should supply a verifiable list of 10 UV points for the nominee at the time of the nomination. Also, the nominee must accept the nomination before a COOSN is issued.

Q: What happens if my Sombrero Number application is refused by the FNVW?

A: The Office of Darth Bawl is always looking for new candidates. Nuff said.

Q: What are "UV points"?
1. Threats of violence, especially death. (one point per kook)
2. Lists, i.e. real lists, not just mentions of two or three names in the same post. One list per kook, unless the lists are clearly meant to serve different purposes.
3. Fanboi sites (one point per kook, not one point per site. Minimum qualification is a whole page about you; pages containing lists don't score extra if the list also appears on Usenet).
4. Fanboi newsgroups (one point per kook, not one point per group)
5. Attempts at real-life contact (e.g. posting phone numbers)
6. Fake awards, revenge nominations etc. (one point per kook)
7. Mentions in a newsgroup FAQ (e.g. soc.men).
8. Being the target of a Kooksuit (one point per kook).

When you're hospitalised, it pays to be nice to your nurse, even when you're feeling miserable. A bossy businessman learned the hard way after ordering his nurses around as if they were his employees. But the head nurse stood up to him.
One morning she entered his room and announced, "I have to take your temperature." After complaining for several minutes, he finally settled down, crossed his arms and opened his mouth.

"No, I'm sorry," the nurse stated, "but for this reading, I can't use an oral thermometer."
This started another round of complaining, but eventually he rolled over and bared his bottom. After feeling the nurse insert the thermometer, he heard her announce, "I have to get something. Now you stay just like that until I get back!"
She left the door to his room open on her way out, and he cursed under his breath as he heard people walking past his door laughing.
After almost an hour, the man's doctor came into the room. "What's going on here?" asked the doctor.
Angrily, the man answers, "What's the matter, Doc? Haven't you ever seen someone having their temperature taken?" "
Yes," said the doctor. "But never with a daffodil."

What do you mean, "technically"?
One is either a Muslim or not, period.

Their ears would have to have a combined area of 10833 square feet to lift a 6 tonne elephant.

No this is not SPAM - your fucking brain is SPAM!

I sent the original test message to make sure I could post - and it wasn't addressed to you - but you being the asshole that you are had to answer it with another ludicrous answer!

5475. shoveanovaupyourass day 3262 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actual believe that the law enfocement requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook Mark will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kooks fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. Shalom!

shoveanovaupyourass day 3262 of watching a UP retard because his brain is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't act so wacked and stupid, and actual believe that the law enfocement requires you to report anybody you can think of for an alleged pander note that everyone knows you created and sent to yourself, OTOH nobody wants to sue because we would have to give our real names and we don't dare do that because the UP kook Mark will lie and falsely report us too, but in the long run nothing will happen in return as law enforcement is well informed that the UP fool is mentally unstable, that is ok because the kooks fame as a total flake is slowly spreading across the net and in his area, I guess he likes getting banned from web sites and being ejected from ham clubs and is seen as total obtuse impotent buffoon, personally we do not care, but we do enjoy the laughs from the never ending rant, nevertheless it is clear however that the UP kook has no life, except to victimize his own wife by dragging her down socially in the process. Shalom!

5494. shownatovah day 144 lawsuit watch is still MIA as of course it must be since you can't sue anyoone for doing what the laws requires OTOH to sue you still have to give your real names and that you dare not do for fear for what will hapen in return that is ok because your fame as Kooks is slowly spreading accorss the net I guess you like being seem as kooky and impotent, personaly i would not care that but enjoy fellows, it is clear howver that I am the very center of your life and to sue youfor false accusation you must be the target of them meaning allegedly only k3vr and w4nti are able to sue

NHTSA Campaign ID Number: 08T026

Synopsis:
Bridgestone/Firestone North America Tire, LLC (BFNT) is recalling 135,310 Firestone FR380 tires, size P235/75R15, manufactured between June 4, 2006 and September 8, 2007, and 26,941 Lemans Champion SE tires, size P235/75R15, manufactured between June 4, 2006 and September 2, 2006. These tires were produced with insufficient tread base gauge. Continued use of the subject tires may lead to vibration and groove cracking. Extended use could lead to tread distortion or tread separation and loss of vehicle control. BFNT will notify owners and replace the affected tires free of charge. BFNT will also mount and balance the replacement tires, all at no charge or expense to the owner. The recall is expected to begin on or about October 29, 2008. Owners may contact BFNT toll-free at 1-800-465-1904 or visit their website at www.firestonetire.com.
For more information for this particular recall, please go to 08T026.

5569. MINUTES OF THE JULY 1, 2008 CCRAA MEETING.... Michigan Amateur Radio club impeaches their president, kb9rqz

MINUTES OF THE JULY 1, 2008 CCRAA MEETING (No minutes were available at the July meeting) MINUTES OF THE AUGUST 5, 2008 MEETING The meeting opened at 7:02 pm EDT with the Secretary (KD8CTL) reading the minutes of the July 1, meeting. (Not reported during the July meeting) They included a report from the Property committee showing that the clubhouse is in good shape, and all systems were working. No other committee reports were available.
Since there was a health issue with the present Secretary, Gavrielah Hojnacki (KD8CTL) George, W8FWG offered his services to fill in the remainder of her term as "Acting
Secretary." This offer was accepted by the existing Secretary, and approved by the President, with an amendment to serve up to the time of the next election in March of 2009.
This was agreed to by George, W8FWG. Self introductions followed, with the following radioamateurs present at the meeting: KD8CTL, KB9RQZ, N8ZBJ, WA8JSF, W8ERB,
W9VLM, W8ILS, W4KAR, WB8ZYL, WA8QNF, K6IPC, W8DAO, KB8XI and W8FWG. Our President voiced concern of the ongoing uncertainly of the operation of our 146.670 MHz repeater in Herman. George, W8FWG reported for Chuck, WB8FCY, that this property may have already been sold by the DNR, to a radio or TV broadcasting company but that we had no assurance that that had taken place. George offered to contact the DNR (a ham in the DNR, whom he knows) to get the latest information on that site, and to report back to the President of the club, ASAP.
Treasurer's Report: By Paul, W9VLM, indicated we have received a request from the State of > Michigan regarding our charter and status as a non-profit organization.
> This means a charge of $20 annually, and the Treasurer was instructed to pay it. At 7:36 pm
Gavrielah had to leave suddenly (no reason given) and the roster of those present was turned over to George, W8FWG.

Glenn, WA8QNF asked this question of the President. "Mark, in the interest of the CCRAA would you be willing to step down as President of the organization.?"

The answer given by Mark was a resounding "No!"

In view of the "turbulence" that occurred, theProperty Chairman's report (W8FWG's report) did not get read, but it is included here as follows: All utilities within the building are operational, and the weekly routines are being kept up, the monthly check of the emergency engine was completed, an additional operating chart was made up and a new antenna tuning guide was added.

The lawn was not mowed, per the President's request, because of his allergy to newly mown grass.

The water leak at the roof has been corrected and one problem with a door switch remains and that should be taken care before the next meeting.
Cataloging of the small parts cabinet continues, and now that we have a new computer this should be completed by year's end..

A motion made by Glenn, WA8QNF and seconded by Roy, WB8ZYL to "Remove Mark, KB9RQZ from the office of President of the CCRAA" was introduced, and a discussion followed. When it came to a vote, there was one ABSTENTION, one NO vote,
11 YES votes, and the motion carried. George, W8FWG, being appointed Acting Secretary took ending notes.

The next meeting of the CCRAA is scheduled to be held at the Osceola Clubhouse on September 2, 2008 at 7:00pm EDT. Since there was no longer a quorum (without a President or Vice President present), a motion to adjourn was entertained by Roland, KB8XI and seconded by Glenn, WA8QNF, and the meeting adjourned
at 8:45pm EDT

A nice, calm and respectable lady went into the pharmacy, right up to the pharmacist, looked straight into his eyes, and said, “I would like to buy some cyanide.”The pharmacist asked, “Why in the world do you need cyanide?”
The lady replied, “I need it to poison my husband.”

The pharmacists eyes got big and he exclaimed, “Lord have mercy!
I can’t give you cyanide to kill your husband! That’s against the law!
I’ll lose my license! They’ll throw both of us in jail! All kinds of bad things will happen. Absolutely not! You CANNOT have any cyanide!”
The lady reached into her purse and pulled out a picture of her husband in bed with the pharmacist’s wife.
The pharmacist looked at the picture and replied, “Well now. That’s different. You didn’t tell me you had a prescription.”

A man takes the day off work and decides to go out golfing. He is on the second hole when he notices a frog sitting next to the green. He thinks nothing of it and is about to shoot when he hears, "Ribbit, 9 Iron" The man looks around and doesn't see anyone. "Ribbit, 9 Iron." He looks at the frog and decides to prove the frog wrong, puts his other club away, and grabs a 9 iron. Boom! He hits it 10 inches from the cup. He is shocked.
He says to the frog, "Wow that's amazing. You must be a lucky frog, eh?" The frog reply's

"Ribbit, Lucky frog."
The man decides to take the frog with him to the next hole. "What do you think frog?" the man asks. "Ribbit, 3 wood." The guy takes out a 3 wood and Boom! Hole in one. The man is befuddled and doesn't know what to say. By the end of the day, the man golfed the best game of golf in his life and asks the frog,"OK where to next?"
The frog replies, "Ribbit. Las Vegas." They go to "Las Vegas and the guy says, "OK frog, now what?" The frog says, "Ribbit, Roulette." Upon approaching the roulette table, the man asks, " What do you think I should bet?" The frog replies, "Ribbit, $3000, black 6." Now, this is a million-to-one shot to win, but after the golf game, the man figures what the heck. Boom! Tons of cash comes sliding back across them table.
The man takes his winnings and buys the best room in the hotel. He sits the frog down and says, "Frog, I don't know how to repay you. You've won me all this money and I am forever grateful." The frog replies, "Ribbit, Kiss Me."
He figures why not, since after all the frog did for him he deserves it. With a kiss, the frog turns into a gorgeous 15-year-old girl.
"And that, your honour, is how the girl ended up in my room."

The best golfer is a black guy,
The tallest guy in the NBA is Chinese,
The Swiss hold the America's Cup,
France is accusing the US of arrogance,
Germany doesn't want to go to war,
And the 3 most powerful men in America are named "Bush", "Dick", and "Colon"

The other day I went downtown to run a few errands. I went into the local coffee shop for a snack. I was only there for about 5 minutes. When I came out, there was this cop writing out a parking ticket.

I said to him, 'Come on, man, how about giving a retired person a break?'

He ignored me and continued writing the ticket. His insensitivity annoyed me, so I called him a 'Nazi.' He glared at me and then wrote out another ticket for having worn tires. So I proceeded to call him 'doughnut eating Gestapo.' He finished the second ticket and put it on the windshield with the first. Then he wrote a third ticket when I called him a moron in blue. This went on for about 20 minutes.

The more I talked back to him the more tickets he wrote.

Personally, I didn't really care. I came downtown on the bus. The car that he was putting the tickets on had one of those bumper stickers that said, 'Obama in '08'.

I try to have a little fun each day now that I'm retired. The doctor tells me that it's important to my health.

On television today a Democratic operative pointed out that when Obama holds a rally 25,000-30,000 people show up, whereas when McCain holds one he only draws 10,000-15,000.

The Republican spokesman replied, "That's because McCain's supporters are at work."

Bed Sheets

An extremely modest man was in the hospital for a series of tests, the last of which had left his bodily systems extremely upset.

Upon making several false alarm trips to the bathroom, he decided the latest episode was another and stayed put. He suddenly filled his bed with diarrhea and was embarrassed beyond his ability to remain rational.

In a complete loss of composure he jumped out of bed, gathered up the bed sheets, and threw them out the hospital window.

A drunk was walking by the hospital when the sheets landed on him.
He started yelling, cursing, and swinging his arms violently trying to get the unknown things off, and ended up with the soiled sheets in a tangled pile at his feet.

As the drunk stood there, unsteady on his feet, staring down at the sheets, a hospital security guard, (barely containing his laughter), and who had watched the whole incident, walked up and asked, 'What the heck is going on here?'

The drunk, still staring down at the bed sheets in amazement, replied: 'I think I just beat the shit out of a ghost.'

So you're trying to pass off one of Mark's froggers as Mark? That's some serious gall. Are you French?

> Doesn't AUK have an award for a kook that has at least ten blogs going?

Not even close.

> If you don't you should...LOL

I'll take that under advisement, but TBH, the one you should address with new award suggestions is the FNVW. Mind you, he'd be probably inclined to just laugh at you, considering that you have, collectively with the rest of the fan club, won two awards so far, but you never know.

no he is trying to push HIS own froggery or as I perfer forgery as mine

as far as I am concerned once he tries by name to claim it it is mine
it become forgery

The actual numbered of murders from Jan 1st to July 31st in Chicago in 2008 is 291, according to a police web site. I just checked. So, whoever put this together lied by one.

Just the facts, folks...just the facts...

are ya REALLY sure you want Change?

Perhaps the U.S. should pull out of Chicago ?

Body count:

In the last six months:

292 killed (murdered) in Chicago ;

221 killed in Iraq .

Chicago.... Who Runs it:

Senators: Barack Obama & Dick Durbin

Rep: Jesse Jackson Jr.,

Illinois Gov: Rod Blogojevich,

Illinois House leader Mike Madigan,

Illinois Atty. Gen. Lisa Madigan (daughter of Mike),

Chicago Mayor Richard M. Daley (son of Mayor Richard J. Daley)

.....our leadership in Illinois .....all Democrats.

Thank you for the combat zone in Chicago .

Of course, they're all blaming each other!

Can't blame Republicans; there aren't any!

State pension fund $44 Billion in debt, worst in country.

Cook County (Chicago) sales tax 10.25% highest in country. (Look 'em up if you want).

Chicago school system rated one of the worst in the country.

This is the political culture that Obama comes from in Illinois .

And he's gonna 'fix' Washington politics for us?

Oh, you don't grasp what the "Galactic Killfile" is at all, do you?
I'll attempt to explain once more. The GK is reserved for those who are deemed too boring to be worthy of further awards, though they may well be kooky enough to surpass even the likes of Chung and Wollmann, were they permitted the opportunity to win so many awards. Basically, the purpose is to keep the awards from being hogged by those who are insufficiently entertaining to be deserving of so much attention from the FNVW.

I suppose you have a point there -- rather hard to tell for sure who's posting a given froggery/forgery, so just assuming they're all the same k00k is valid.

> as far as I am concerned once he tries by name to claim it it is mine it

And again, another good point -- leaving the question open is one thing (or rather, any number of indeterminate things), but clarifying it resolves the matter. So, yeah. However, convincing a judge (or a cop) to treat it as a criminal matter would be a whole other kettle o' fish.

Pse remember that 279 of the 291 murders were black on black.
As long as the problrem is CONTAINED to where the coonasses live it is not a problem to be concerned with.

Then why did Miss Pinky Sue Lamb declare me net dead and warn all the "Gay Caballers" not to reply to me under penality of being stabbed with her nail file? Ask col. Jake the Ape-Man as he's scared shitless to reply to me directly which is soooo funny - a psychopath being scared of a Tranny......

Keep spinnin, son!

No one except your wife is afraid of you, you dumb fuck.
Your shtick (such as it is) amounts to this: faglames, racist trolling and tepid attempts at other highly forgettable forms of what must pass as humor in your hovel.

FYI, you gormless lackwit.

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization. Osama bin Laden wanted an aircraft to crash into the Pentagon. Abbie Hoffman merely wanted to levitate it." -- Paul Krassner, http://tinyurl.com/ehu3v

This guy fell asleep on the beach one day. The wind came up and blew sand all over him until he was covered with only his big toe sticking out.
An old nympho was walking down the beach, saw the toe sticking up, pulled down her bikini bottom and squatted over the toe.
She humped away till she was satisfied, pulled up her drawers and left.
The guy woke up, brushed the sand away and left, not knowing what had happened.
The next day his foot itched like hell, and had a sore on it.
He went to the Dr. and after an exam the doc told him he had syphilis of the big toe.
"Syphilis of the big toe?" he inquired, "Isn't that rare?"

The doc said, "You think that's rare -- I had a woman in here this morning with 'Athlete's Pussy.'"

The best rapper is a white guy,
The best golfer is a black guy,
The tallest guy in the NBA is Chinese,
The Swiss hold the America's Cup,
France is accusing the US of arrogance,
Germany doesn't want to go to war,
And the 3 most powerful men in America are named "Bush", "Dick", and "Colon"

Actually he hung one out the window. I fail to see the big deal. Unless of course he has some sort of medical condition causing his hands to involuntarily lose grip without warning.

An Australian, an Irishman and a Scouser are in a bar, They're staring at another man sitting on his own at a table inthe corner. He's so familiar, and not recognising him is driving them mad.
They stare and stare, until suddenly the Irishman twigs: "My god, it's Jesus!" Sure enough, it is Jesus, nursing a pint. Thrilled, they send him over a pint of Guinness, a pint of Fosters and a pint of bitter.
Jesus accepts the drinks, smiles over at the three men, and drinks the pints slowly, one after another. After he's finished the drinks, Jesus approaches the trio.
He reaches for the hand of the Irishman and shakes it, thanking him for the Guinness. When he lets go, the Irishman gives a cry of amazement: "My god! The arthritis I've had for 30 years is gone. It's a miracle!"

Jesus then shakes the Aussie's hand, thanking him for the lager. As he lets go, the man's eyes widen in shock. "Strewth mate, the bad back I've had all my life is completely gone! It's a miracle."
Jesus then approaches the Scouser who says, "Back off, mate, I'm on disability benefit."

Two men were talking.
"My son asked me what I did during the Sexual Revolution," said one.
"I told him I was captured early and spent the duration doing the dishes.

"Plenty of people post under their real names and do not attempt to hide their contact info. You are scared of being 'outed' because you are a pathological abuser of usenet, and people rightly despise you for it.
You're afraid of being reported to the authorities or, better, visited by a couple of guys with baseball bats. Other people don't have this obsessive fear. Ward Hardman himself has posted plenty of personal information - nothing that anyone else added was hidden in any way.
You're so fucking scared you've built up this whole sick mythology about different categories of bad dudes who 'out' scum like you.

"Meanwhile you are the ugliest pigfucker in the universe. You are the

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization.
Osama bin Laden wanted an aircraft to crash into the Pentagon. Abbie Hoffman merely wanted to levitate it." -- Paul Krassner, well, it looks like CB will soon be illegal here in the U.S. as well as ham radio, frs, and gmrs.

Even if HFA (hams for action) is successful in forcing homeowners associations to allow cb and ham antennas, you STILL won't be able to use them since most homeowner associations now prohibit the actual transmissions theirselves of CB and ham radio.

I was looking for apartments. One county said that by law, whenever you move to anywhere within that county, you must join a homeowners' association. It's the law.

Some people say move into a house there without a hoa and without CC&Rs.

Nope. That doesn't work. take a look at the law again. Whenever you move to ANYWHERE within that county, INCLUDING a non hoa non CC&R house, then BY LAW, you MUST JOIN a HOA. Then the formerly non hoa non CC&R house automatically becomes a HOA controlled CC&R restricted house.

And if you don't, you're breaking the law and liens can be placed on your house by whetever hoa decides to file a lawsuit against you.

And from what I've read, courts have been continually ruling in favor of the hoas in most of the instances.

And more and more cities, counties, and I've heard even some states, are following suit.

And people have already said that the FCC said they don't have any authority over it since counties forcing you to involuntarily join A HOA is you voulantarily agreeing to join a hoa and the hoa rules.

Some people say transmit mobile

Nope. That doesn't work either.

Most current hoa rules are worded something like "no cb or ham radio transmissions are allowed on hoa property or any area controlled by the hoa.

From what other hams said, I originally thought this meant you were safe as long as you were transmitting from off of hoa property. (And so did they).

Nope. It turns out that even if you're transmitting from off of the hoa property, if your signal is receivable on hoa property, it IS "transmitting ON Hoa property and on areas controlled by the hoa" and you are in violation of both the hoa rules and laws.

Otherwise the rules would be worded "no transmitting from hoa property" instead of being worded "no transmitting on hoa property".

One ham thought he was obeying his hoa rules by transmitting from the public streets around town, not the hoa controlled streets, but only from the public city owned streets around town and his hoa fined him for it and went after him for it.

Another ham did deliberately disobey his hoa rules by transmitting in secret with low power on two meters.

Even though his hoa rules said "no CB or ham radio transmissions allowed".

Neighbors heard him on their scanner, reported it to the hoa, he was fined and took it to court.

His lawyer argued that since other peole in the hoa constantly use their frs/gmrs radios, it was selective enforcement by the hoa and therefore illegal acts by the hoa.

The judge ruled that since frs/gmrs radios do not require a federal license, they are allowed and perfectly illegal, and since ham radio requires a federal license they are not allowed even if you have a federal license to operate one and therefore illegal.

There are several things I find curious about the judge's ruling.

In no particular order,

1. Since when do GMRS radios NOT require a federal license to operate???

2. Why were the frs/gmrs radios still allowed? FRS IS CB. If you don't belive me, just take a look at the FCC rules.
And the hoa rules clearly said no cb transmissions allowed.

3. Since unlicensed radios are allowed and legal, does this mean th ham can put up a CB antenna in violation of the hoa rules since CB doesn't require a federal license and the judge already said that radios which do not require a federal license are okay and legal to operate, even on hoa property?

So there's at least two instances, in two different places where
federally licensed part 97 devices.

Some people say just operate portable.

Nope. A couple of cities near me have passed laws that while not mentioning CB or ham specifically as far as I know, does in effect make them illegal to use at certain times or alltogether.

Yes, portable, not just mobile.

Their reasoning was that it violates the disturbing the peace law since other people passing by you while you're walking in the parking lot, in the store, or on the public sidewalks can hear you talking to the other person on the cell
phone.

Now this law while as far as I know not actually mentioning CB or ham radio makes CB and ham radio users twice as guilty of breaking the law since the passerbys hear not only you talking to the other person on the radio, but also hear
the other person on the radio talking to you.

the city says such devices are to only be used from your home. They're not allowed to be used in public.

property.

But the city says not in public, only from home.

So you end up in court in both cases and having to pay fines in both cases.

So in effect, frs, gmrs, cb radio and ham radio are now illegal in that city.

And other cities will probably soon be following suit.

Which means that eventually , cb and ham radio will be illegal everwhere in the U.S. since the FCC refused to get involved on the grounds of them "not having any authority over it

Some people say place a restriction on your home that it can never ever be controlled by hoas or CC&Rs.

"emnint domain".

Although I don't know how land developers got "eminint domain" over certain places since I thought only the government could do that, but I've seen it happen.

Some people living in homes built before HOAs and CC&Rs came to their neighborhood ended up with hoas placing

I thought that's a violation of the ex-post-facto laws of the U.S.
Constitution.

People tried to take the hoas to court using that defense.

From what I read, the majority who tried that defense ended up losing in court, because the courts ruled that since the hoas are not governments, the laws of the U.S. constitution
preventing the government from enacting ex-post-facto laws does not apply to the hoas and therefore, the hoas can legally place a lien on your non HOA non CC&R house
for you refusing to join the hoa (even though there's nothing else anywhere saying they can take ovver your land) and can legally force you to join the hoa while living in non hoa non CC&R houses.

(From what I read, mostly Illinois courts, but some other places

It's actually illegal here to use wireless hands free devices, and was before there were even cell phones. Because

the law banning them and they are sold in stores around here. Although illegal.

Some people say transmit mobile

Nope. That doesn't work either.

Most current hoa rules are worded something like "no cb or ham radio transmissions are allowed on hoa property or any area controlled by the hoa.

From what other hams said, I originally thought this meant you were safe as long as you were transmitting from off of hoa property. (And so did they).

Nope. It turns out that even if you're transmitting from off of the hoa property, if your signal is receivable on hoa property, it IS "transmitting ON Hoa property and on areas controlled by the hoa" and you are in violation of both the hoa rules and laws.

Otherwise the rules would be worded "no transmitting from hoa property" instead of being worded "no transmitting on hoa property".

Some hoas have already went after hams who tried that.

One ham thought he was obeying his hoa rules by transmitting from the public streets around town, not the hoa controlled streets, but only from the public city owned streets around town and his hoa fined him for it and went after him for it.

Another ham did deliberately disobey his hoa rules by transmitting in secret with low power on two meters.

Even though his hoa rules said "no CB or ham radio transmissions allowed".

Neighbors heard him on their scanner, reported it to the hoa, he was fined and took it to court.

His lawyer argued that since other peole in the hoa constantly use their frs/gmrs radios, it was selective enforcement by the hoa and therefore illegal acts by the hoa.

The judge ruled that since frs/gmrs radios do not require a federal license, they are allowed and perfectly illegal, and since ham radio requires a federal license they are not allowed even if you have a federal license to operate one and therefore illegal.

There are several things I find curious about the judge's ruling.

In no particular order,

1. Since when do GMRS radios NOT require a federal license to operate???

2. Why were the frs/gmrs radios still allowed? FRS IS CB. If you don't belive me, just take a look at the FCC rules.

And the hoa rules clearly said no cb transmissions allowed.

3. Since unlicensed radios are allowed and legal, does this mean th ham can put up a CB antenna in violation of the hoa rules since CB doesn't require a federal license and the judge already said that radios which do not require a federal license are okay and legal to operate, even on hoa property?

So there's at least two instances, in two different places where legally, unlicensed part 15 devices legally have legal priority over federally licensed part 97 devices.

Some people say just operate portable.

Nope. A couple of cities near me have passed laws that while not mentioning CB or ham specifically as far as I know, does in effect make them illegal to use at certain times or alltogether.

One of the cities (soorry. I don't remmember which one) passed a ban on portable cell phone use.

Yes, portable, not just mobile.

Their reasoning was that it violates the disturbing the peace law
since other people passing by you while you're walking in the parking lot, in the store, or on the public sidewalks can hear you talking to the other person on the cell
phone.

Now this law while as far as I know not actually mentioning CB or ham
radio makes CB and ham radio users twice as guilty of breaking the law since the passerbys hear not only you talking to the other person on the radio, but also hear
the other person on the radio talking to you.

the city says such devices are to only be used from your home. They're not allowed to be used in public.

But you can't use them from home because of hoa rules.

The hoas say such devices should only be used in public off of hoa property.

But the city says not in public, only from home.

So you end up in court in both cases and having to pay fines in both cases.

So in effect, frs, gmrs, cb radio and ham radio are now illegal in that city.

And other cities will probably soon be following suit.

Which means that eventually , cb and ham radio will be illegal
everwhere in the U.S. since the FCC refused to get involved on the grounds of them "not having any authority over it since it's voulantary contract law".

Some people say place a restriction on your home that it can never ever be controlled by hoas or CC&Rs.

Doesn't work either. When you try that, they just take over it by
"emnint domain".

Although I don't know how land developers got "eminint domain" over certain places since I thought only the government could do that, but I've seen it happen.

Some people living in homes built before HOAs and CC&Rs came to their neighborhood ended up with hoas placing
liens on their homes for refusing to join hoas.

I thought that's a violation of the ex-post-facto laws of the U.S.
Constitution.

People tried to take the hoas to court using that defense.

I only read about one person being sucessful with that defense.

From what I read, the majority who tried that defense ended up losing
in court, because the courts ruled that since the hoas are not governments, the laws of the U.S. constitution
preventing the government from enacting ex-post-facto laws does not apply to the hoas and therefore, the hoas can legally place a lien on your non HOA non CC&R house
for you refusing to join the hoa (even though there's nothing else anywhere saying they can take ovver your land) and can legally force you to join the hoa while living in non hoa non CC&R houses.

(From what I read, mostly Illinois courts, but some other places also).

It's actually illegal here to use wireless hands free devices, and was before there were even cell phones. Because it was proven to be more dangerous.

yet somehow, the cell phone companies have gotten away with breaking
the law banning them and they are sold in stores around here. Although illegal.

A couple who hadn't celebrated Halloween in a long time decided to dress up and go out.

The woman went into her bedroom, stripped naked and tied a lemon between her legs.

When she came out, the man cried, "You can't go out like that!"

She said, "I can go anyway I like and so can you!"

Whereupon he retired to the bedroom and came out stark raving naked with a potato tied to his tally whacker.

The woman says, you're going out like that?"

And he replies, "Yep, if you can go as a sour-puss,
I can go as a dick-tator!"

A certain well-known retired U.S. Army General of Christian ancestry lost his memory one day and believed he was actually Jewish.
Simultaneously, he went a bit insane, and was institutionalized.

He argued that he must be served only Kosher food. Finally, unable to avoid the extra work and expense, the director of the institution acquiesced.

A few days later, on Shabbat, the director was strolling through the grounds, when he came upon the same patient sitting in a chair and smoking a cigar.

"Wait a minute, Schwartzkopf," he said. "I thought you were so religious that we had to bring in special food for you. And now, here you are smoking a cigar on Shabbat!?"

"But Doctor," Schwartzkopf replied. "Did you forget?
I'm meshugah!"

Giganews says:

Spam

Although there is no single, precise definition of spam, and there are differing opinions on what constitutes spam, we will consider the following when reviewing complaints:

* Repetitive Posting
Posting the same thing repeatedly in one or more newsgroups will usually be considered spam, regardless of the content.

Giganews is very strict about spamming. You agree to not spam, and you agree to avoid any form of posting that may look like spam. If it is determined that you have posted spam through the Giganews servers, you will be charged a $50 cleanup fee per spam message that you posted,
and your account will be terminated.

Giganews says:

Spam

Although there is no single, precise definition of spam, and there are differing opinions on what constitutes spam, we will consider the following when reviewing complaints:

* Repetitive Posting
Posting the same thing repeatedly in one or more newsgroups will usually be considered spam, regardless of the content.

Giganews is very strict about spamming. You agree to not spam, and you agree to avoid any form of posting that may look like spam. If it is determined that you have posted spam through the Giganews servers, you will be charged a $50 cleanup fee per spam message that you posted,
and your account will be terminated.

Mark is a fucking hypocrite.

Mark needs to be reported. Maybe we could get his credit card charged with a several thousand dollar cleanup fee! YESSS!

Well, he is, admittedly, roughly as crazy as a bedbug, but he's still light-years ahead of Clocky in intellectual development, and he's found the fun in AUK, which is partly why he was officially pardoned (last April) by the FNVW after winning the Tinfoil Sombrero. The other part was taking down his mirror of the AUK website, that being what got him awarded the TS in the first place.

L. Mencken

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

"It does to a certain extant physically and theoretically it holds even into the quantum but there observational confirmation is limited or non existent. That's the problem and the major stumbling block to field unification. For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. It's like a blind man that

"Immorality: The morality of those who are having a better time." -- H. L. Mencken

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

"It does to a certain extant physically and theoretically it holds even into the quantum but there observational confirmation is limited or non existent. That's the problem and the major stumbling block to field unification. For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. It's like a blind man that

comfortable until that one new or unexpected event pops up and he's lost

What do bungee jumping and sex with a prostitute have in common?

1) They both cost about $100.
2) They both last about 30 seconds.
3) In both cases, if the rubber breaks, you're a dead man.

5908. Denileukin diftitox

Denileukin diftitox

On October 15, 2008, the U. S. Food and Drug Administration converted the approval of denileukin diftitox (Ontak®, Eisai Medical Research) solution for intravenous use for the treatment of persistent or recurrent CD-25 positive cutaneous T-cell lymphoma from accelerated approval to regular approval following confirmation of an improvement in progression-free survival (PFS) and overall response rate (ORR). Denileukin diftitox was originally approved in 1999 under the accelerated approval program for this indication based on durable, objective responses in an open-label study comparing two different doses. A further description of the FDA accelerated approval regulations is at http://www.fda.gov/cder/guidance/5645fnl.htm.

Efficacy was demonstrated in a placebo-controlled multinational, dose-ranging study enrolling 144 patients with CD-25 positive stages Ia-III cutaneous T-cell lymphoma. Patients had three or fewer prior therapies and were randomized to receive either an IV infusion of denileukin diftitox at 18 or 9 mcg/kg days 1-5 of a 21-day cycle (maximum 8 cycles) or placebo (saline).

The three study arms were balanced for baseline demographic characteristics. Patients were required to have CD-25 expression in tumor specimens on central laboratory testing. The median age was 59 years; 34% were age 65 years or older. Sixty-five percent had less advanced (? IIa) disease; the median number of prior therapies was two.

Efficacy data were based on determination of ORR, supported by response duration and PFS determined by an independent endpoint review committee. ORR on the 18 mcg/kg dose arm was 46%, 37% on the 9 mcg/kg arm, and 16% in the placebo arm with median response durations of 220, 277 and 81 days, respectively. Significant improvements of PFS at both doses of denileukin diftitox was noted (hazard ratio 0.27 comparing 18 mcg/kg vs. placebo, p=0.0002; hazard ratio 0.42 comparing the 9 mcg/kg vs. placebo, p=0.02).

Treatment-emergent adverse events occurring at an incidence of greater than or equal to 20% (18 mcg/kg group) and more frequently than in the placebo arm were fever, nausea, rigors, fatigue, vomiting, headache, peripheral edema, diarrhea, anorexia, rash, and myalgia. Serious adverse events in patients receiving denileukin diftitox include infusion reactions, capillary leak syndrome, and loss of visual acuity, including loss of color vision. Laboratory abnormalities reported included hypoalbuminemia and hepatic transaminitis.

Full prescribing information, including clinical trial information, safety, dosing, drug-drug interactions and contraindications is available at www.fda.gov/cder/foi/label/2008/103767s5094lbl.pdf.

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

Everlasting Distributors Inc. Issues a Nationwide Recall of Fresh and Crispy Jacobina Biscuits Because of Possible Health Risks
Contact:
Everlasting Distributors Inc.
201-823-0800

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- October 29, 2008 -- Everlasting Distributors Inc., Bayonne NJ is initiating a nationwide recall of all their 3.88oz (110gm) packages of Fresh and Crispy Jacobina Biscuits because it may be contaminated with Melamine.

Consumers who have the product which is being recalled should stop using it immediately. If consumers have questions about possible health risks, they should contact their doctor.

Product was distributed nationwide in Asian Grocery stores.

The product comes in 3.88oz (110 gm) blue and red color clear plastic package, labeled "JACOBINA".

No illnesses associated with this product have been reported to date.

The recall was initiated after FDA testing discovered that product was found to contain Melamine. Consumers who have purchased Fresh and Crispy Jacobina Biscuits are urged to return it to the place of purchase for a full refund. Consumers with questions may contact the company at 201-823-0800, Monday to Friday 9:00 to 5:00, Eastern Standard Time.
